Communicating in Business

Student's Book Second Edition

A flexible approach that meets the needs of Business English students.

- Communicating in Business is for students at the intermediate level who need to improve their skills in the key areas of business communication: taking part in meetings, telephoning, negotiating, presenting and socializing.

- The course provides students with realistic controlled and open-ended activities so that they can build up their fluency and confidence.

- The modular approach allows for flexibility – teachers can customize the course to the needs of their students and do the modules in any order.

- The course is short – each of the fifteen units provides about three hours of classroom work.

- There is a strong emphasis on listening. The audio component provides around two hours of listening input so there is a lot of opportunity for students to improve this skill.

- Authentic reading passages, taken from a variety of sources, introduce the theme of the units and there are integrated writing tasks.

- Language and Skills checklists in each unit provide a useful reference after students have completed the course.

- The course can be used for TOEIC preparation to get students to the level where they can operate successfully in an English-speaking work environment.

- The Second Edition has been updated and now includes new one-page self-study sections at the end of each unit.

Introduction to the Second Edition

Communicating in Business is based on the same core content as English for Business Communication. The main difference is that Communicating in Business uses American English as its model whereas English for Business Communication uses British English.

Communicating in Business is a short course with two key objectives:

- to develop your technique in five key areas of communication: socializing, using the telephone, presenting information, participating in meetings and negotiations
- to develop your knowledge of the language used in these key areas.

The course is concerned with improving your listening and speaking skills. There is a lot of opportunity to practice understanding from the recorded material. It is important that you try to understand the key message of the extracts, not every word you hear. Similarly, there are several reading texts where again you should try to understand the key messages, not necessarily every word on the page.

There are very many opportunities for discussion and plenty of role plays. The discussion is partly designed to get you to think about what makes communication effective. The practice material and the role plays lead to a Transfer exercise. This is a chance to connect what you have studied with your own daily experience, either as a student or as a professional working in business. The skills learned from this course are useful for those preparing to start work and for those already in work.

As you use the course, practice as much as you can and prepare for meetings, presentations or telephone calls by using the Checklists at the end of each unit. Always refer to these when preparing a communication task. Try to develop the habit of good preparation. Try also to develop the habit of self-assessment to help you to see where improvements can be made. Your teacher will help you with this.

Enjoy the course!

This second edition not only provides improvements to the overall appearance and design of the book, but also responds to users’ requests for more practice material. There is now an additional page of exercises summarising key language from each unit (Quick Communication Check), designed for self-study use. Some of the listening material has been re-recorded. Together with various small changes, much of the practice material has also been updated.

Building a relationship

AIMS
- Cross-cultural understanding [1]
- Welcoming visitors
- Small talk: Keeping the conversation going

1 Cross-cultural understanding [1]

1 Look at the photo. In groups, discuss the situation. Decide what you think the people are talking about. Suggest various topics. Say what you think they are definitely not talking about. Then spend a few minutes acting out the conversation.

2 Read the text below. Identify the basic message implied by the text.

Eye contact

In many Western societies, including the United States, a person who does not maintain "good eye contact" is regarded as being slightly suspicious, or a "shifty" character. Americans unconsciously associate people who avoid eye contact as unfriendly, insecure, untrustworthy, inattentive and impersonal. However, in contrast, Japanese children are taught in school to direct their gaze at the region of their teacher's Adam's apple or tie knot, and, as adults, Japanese lower their eyes when speaking to a superior, a gesture of respect.
Latin American cultures, as well as some African cultures, such as Nigeria, have longer looking time, but prolonged eye contact from an individual of lower status is considered disrespectful. In the US, it is considered rude to stare – regardless of who is looking at whom. In contrast, the polite Englishman is taught to pay strict attention to a speaker, to listen carefully, and to blink his eyes to let the speaker know he or she has been understood as well as heard. Americans signal interest and comprehension by bobbing their heads or grunting.

A widening of the eyes can also be interpreted differently, depending on circumstances and culture. Take, for instance, the case of an American and a Chinese discussing the terms of a proposed contract. Regardless of the language in which the proposed contract is carried out, the US negotiator may interpret a Chinese person’s widened eyes as an expression of astonishment instead of as a danger signal (its true meaning) of politely expressed anger.

3 If necessary, read the text again. Then comment on the following:
   a) observations about many people from the United States
   b) observations about the English
   c) an observation about Japanese children
   d) the meaning of lowering one’s eyes in Japan
   e) why looking at someone for a long time may be considered disrespectful
   f) the meaning of widened eyes in Chinese culture.

4 Before receiving a visitor from a foreign country – or before travelling abroad – you need to think about the cultural issues that may affect the relationship.
   a) Suggest some basic research that you should do before receiving your visitor, or before traveling. What issues should you think about?
   Note: After suggesting your own ideas, compare your list with the Skills Checklist at the end of this unit.
   b) Listen to the recording. An American, Peter Wasserman, who is the CEO of an international company, talks about what he thinks is important in preparing for business contacts with people from other cultures. He mentions several key areas to find out about. Identify six of them. Did you think of any of the same issues?

|Discussion|

In what way is the advice in this section useful when doing business? Look again at the Skills Checklist on page 12.
2 Welcoming visitors

What happens when a visitor arrives with an appointment to visit a company? What are the typical stages of the first meeting? What conversations take place?

1 Listen to the recording in which Len Ewing arrives for a meeting with Jack Caruso and Luisa Caldos of Evco, an advertising agency in Seattle, Washington.
   a) Is the meeting between Len Ewing and Evco formal or informal? Give reasons for your answer.
   b) Do they know each other quite well?
   c) Len has a problem. What is it?

2 Listen again. Think again about how Luisa and Jack talk to Len. She interrupts him at the start. Is this acceptable? They use first names. Is this right, given the situation? Jack begins to talk about the program for the day. Is this appropriate at this stage?

3 Listen to the recording of Peter Marwood's arrival at SDA Ltd., in Sydney, Australia. He has to wait a few minutes and asks Stephanie Field for some assistance. Identify two things he needs and three things he does not need.

Needs
   b)

Does not need c) d) e)
Practice 1

Make a dialogue based on the following flow chart. If you need help, look at the Language Checklist on page 12.

Visitor

- Introduce yourself.
- Say you have an appointment with Sandra Bates.
- Decline – ask if you can use a phone.
- Decline – you only need the phone.
- Thank him/her.
- (a few minutes later)
- Thank assistant.
- Ask how far it is to station.
- Accept offer – suggest a time.

Receptionist

- Welcome visitor.
- Explain that SB will be here shortly.
- Offer a drink / refreshments.
- Say yes / Offer fax as well.
- Show the visitor to the phone.
- Reply – offer any other help.
- Two miles – ten minutes by taxi.
- Offer to get one.
- Promise to do that – say that SB is free now.
- Offer to take him/her to SB’s office.

🎧 Now listen to the recording of a model answer.
3 Small talk: keeping the conversation going

1 Randy Hemp from the U.S. is visiting a customer in Taiwan. He is talking to the Production Manager of a manufacturing plant in Taipei. Listen to the recording of an extract of their conversation.

MANAGER: Is this your first visit here?
HEMP: No, in fact the first time I came was for a trade fair. We began our East Asian operations here at the 1999 Exhibition.
MANAGER: Shall we have a look around the plant before lunch?

a) What is wrong with what the production manager says?
   The answer is, of course, that it breaks a "rule" of conversation. Generally, if you ask a question you should comment on the answer or ask a supplementary question.

b) Now suggest a better version of the same conversation. There is a recording of a model version.

2 Complete the following dialogue by writing appropriate sentences in the blanks.

PETER: Have you been to San Francisco before?
JANIS: No, it's my first visit.

PETER: a) ____________________________
JANIS: I'm sure I will.
PETER: And ... er, is the hotel all right?
JANIS: Yes, it's very comfortable.

PETER: b) ____________________________ So, do you have much time here in the U.S.? Are you staying long?
JANIS: No, I have to go back tomorrow afternoon.

PETER: c) ____________________________ You'll have to come back again!

JANIS: d) ____________________________
PETER: So what time's your flight tomorrow?
JANIS: In the evening, 6:35.
PETER: Well, I can get you a taxi if you like, to get you there in good time.

JANIS: e) ____________________________
PETER: No problem at all. Was it a good flight today?
JANIS: No, it wasn't actually.
PETER: f) ____________________________ g) ____________________________?
JANIS: It was raining – quite hard. There was a lot of turbulence.
PETER: h) ____________________________
3 Listen to the recording of four conversation extracts.
   a) Match each of them to one of the four photos below.

b) Listen to each one again. In each case, suggest how you think the conversation might develop.
c) Do you think any of the topics included would be unacceptable in a particular culture that you know about?

Practice 2

Look at the four pictures above and use each of them for two or three minutes of continual conversation with a partner.

Note:
- there should be no breaks of more than three seconds in your conversation
- listen carefully to what your partner says and pick up on specific points
- keep the conversation flowing.

Role play 1

Working in pairs. Student A should look at File card 1A and Student B should look at File card 1B.

Role play 2

Keep the same A and B. Student A should look at File card 2A. Student B should look at File card 2B.

TRANSFER

Look at the Skills Checklist and prepare ideas on these topics in relation to a country you know well either through work or pleasure. Discuss the country you choose with a colleague.

1 Cross-cultural understanding (2)

The following text is about cultural diversity. Read it through once and decide which of the three statements (A, B or C) given below the extract offers the most accurate summary.

The impact of culture on business

Take a look at the new breed of international managers, educated according to the most modern management philosophies. They all know that in the SBU, TQM should reign, with products delivered JIT, where CFTs distribute products while subject to MBO. (SBU = strategic business unit, TQM = total quality management, JIT = just-in-time, CFT = customer first team, MBO = management by objectives.)

But just how universal are these management solutions? Are these "truths" about what effective management really is – truths that can be applied anywhere, under any circumstances?

Even with experienced international companies, many well-intended universal applications of management theory have turned out badly. For example, pay-for-performance has in many instances been a failure on the African continent because there are particular, though unspoken, rules about the sequence and timing of reward and promotions.

Similarly, management-by-objectsives schemes have generally failed within subsidiaries of multinationals in southern Europe, because managers have not wanted to conform to the abstract nature of preconceived policy guidelines.

Even the notion of human resource management is difficult to translate to other cultures, coming as it does from a typically Anglo-Saxon doctrine. It borrows from economics the idea that human beings are resources like physical and monetary resources. It tends to assume almost unlimited capacities for individual development. In countries without these beliefs, this concept is hard to grasp and unpopular once it is understood.

International managers have it tough. They must operate on a number of different premises at any one time. These premises arise from their culture of origin, the culture in which they are working, and the culture of the organisation which employs them.

In every culture in the world such phenomena as authority, bureaucracy, creativity, good fellowship, verification and accountability are experienced in different ways. That we use the same words to describe them tends to make us unaware that our cultural biases and our accustomed conduct may not be appropriate, or shared.

A There are certain popular universal truths about management which can successfully be applied in various cultural contexts.

B Cultures are so varied and so different throughout the world that management has to take into account differences rather than simply assume similarities.

C Effective management of human resources is the key to everyone achieving their full potential.
2 Read the text again. Identify the following:
   a) the problem with universal management solutions
   b) an example of the failure of pay-for-performance
   c) an example of the failure of management-by-objectives schemes
   d) the problem with human resource management
   e) three cultures affecting international managers
   f) six areas in which different cultural interpretations apply.

2 Inviting, and accepting or declining

What kinds of social activities in your town could be appropriate ways of entertaining visitors from other countries?

1 Listen to the first example on the recording. You will hear a conversation in which someone invites a business associate to a social event. Identify:
   a) what is being suggested
   b) the response
   c) what will happen next.

2 Listen to the second example, where someone else invites a different business associate to a social event. Identify:
   a) what is being suggested
   b) the response
   c) what will happen next.
3. Listen to the recording of three short extracts, where hosts invite their visitors to take part in a social activity. The invitations are rejected.
   a) Identify each suggested activity.
   b) Give the reasons for each rejection.
   c) Do you think each rejection is appropriate? Explain your answer.

<table>

<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

4. Work in pairs. Invite your partner to a social activity. He/she should respond by accepting or rejecting the invitation. Use the prompts below.
   a) tomorrow night / see a show or go for a drive
   b) this evening / a meal in a restaurant with some colleagues
   c) when you come / what would you like to do?

Listen to the model versions.

Now listen to the recording of model answers.
Practice 2

Use the following flow chart to construct a dialogue. The situation is a semi-formal business meeting in your country.

Host
Ask your visitor if he/she has tried the local cuisine.

Visitor
Say no – but you've heard it is very good.

Agree – describe a particular specialty.

Comment.

Suggest a meal in a restaurant.

Accept.

Respond.

Ask if he/she likes fish.

Yes – you have heard that the fish (in this town) is very good.

Confirm this view.

Suggest you'll meet him/her at hotel.

Respond.

Ask what time.

Suggest a time.

Agree and end conversation.

Confirm arrangement.

End conversation.

Now listen to the recording of a model answer.
Practice 3

You receive the email below from a business partner confirming a meeting with you at a Trade Fair in Munich. Unfortunately you have to leave Munich after your meeting, but you expect to be in San Francisco a month later. Write a reply suggesting a different arrangement which you can confirm closer to the time.

FROM “John Callam” <jcallam2@interlink.com>

TO m.j.saans.accounts@saboc.co.au
SENT March 15 20—10.38
Subject Munich Trade Fair

Maria,

Following our telephone conversation I confirm that we will meet at Interlink stand at the Munich Trade Fair on Thurs May 24 sometime during the morning.

I look forward to talking about our products and services. I attach details of some new products that I think will interest you. We can discuss these when we meet.

It would be nice to meet socially when in Munich. I wonder if you would be free to join me and a colleague for the evening of Thursday 24? We plan to meet at the Hilton Hotel, in the lobby, at about 8.30. Do let me know if you can join us and of course we would be pleased if you would like to bring a colleague or a partner.

We look forward to meeting you soon.

Best wishes,

John Callam
Product Development

Role play 1

Work in pairs. Student A should look at File card 3A. Student B should look at File card 3B.
3 Eating out

1 Imagine you are in a restaurant with a business colleague. Work in groups of three. Brainstorm as many examples as you can of the language indicated below.

Group one
- recommending what to eat
- expressing preference
- ordering

Group two
- commenting on the food
- asking for the check
- offering to pay

Group three
- insisting on paying
- inviting
- thanking

2 Divide into different groups of three and together in your new groups share all the examples you have of different ways of saying the nine functions above.

Complete the grid below with possible phrases:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Recommending what to eat</th>
<th>Expressing preference</th>
<th>Ordering</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Commenting on the food</th>
<th>Asking for the check</th>
<th>Offering to pay</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Insisting on paying</th>
<th>Inviting</th>
<th>Thanking</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3 Now listen to a conversation recorded in a restaurant. The recording contains parts of a conversation between Patricia Cork and Sandra Martinez. They are colleagues in a joint venture between two American companies.

Note any similarities between your suggestions and the language in the recording. Note also any phrases used on the tape that you did not suggest.

Role play 2

Student A should turn to File card 4A and Student B should turn to File card 4B.

TRANSFER

Think of any professional or business contact you have with other countries. Think about any conventions that are different from those in your country and may affect your dealing with people from these countries. Consider for example:

- conventions of dress
- conventions regarding alcohol and food
- socializing
- shaking hands
- physical contact
- gestures
- eye contact
- humor
- the relationship between work and pleasure
- the relationship between family and work
- family matters.

AIMS
- Preparing to make a telephone call
- Taking and leaving messages
- The secretarial barrier
- Receiving calls
- Asking for and giving repetition

1 Preparing to make a telephone call

1. Look at the cartoon. What do you imagine they are saying? Say what the problems are and how problems like this can be avoided.

2. Listen to the recording of Clare Macey, a director of Inter Marketing, suggesting ways to prepare for telephone calls. Then check off the suggestions that she makes that are included in the list below.

   - Do not try to guess what the other person will say.
   - Think about your objectives from the call – any questions you need to ask or things you need to say.
   - If someone calls and you are not ready for them, ask them to call back later.
   - Desk preparation: prepare the desk – paper, pen, any relevant documentation, computer files.
   - Check recent correspondence, know the situation.
   - Have your desk calendar on hand, so you can make appointments.
3 Different people have different objectives in a telephone call. What do you think are the objectives of the people in the situations below? The first is done for you as an example.

a) A Purchasing Manager who has received an incomplete delivery.

• to tell the supplier that the delivery is incomplete.
• to arrange to get the rest of the delivery sent as soon as possible.
• (possibly) to complain about the poor service.

b) A computer operator with a software problem calling a Software Helpline.

c) A Sales Representative for a furniture manufacturer making a first call to Moda Design, a company which sells office furniture.

d) A purchaser at Moda Design who takes the call in situation c.

2 Receiving calls

1 Look at the cartoon as you listen to the recording. Say what the problem is and how problems like this can be avoided.
2 Listen to another short extract from the recording of Clare Macey. Here she is talking about being prepared for incoming calls. Check off what she recommends.

Send a fax suggesting someone calls you – then be prepared for their call. □

If you expect a call, think about what the other person will say or what they will ask. □

Check any relevant documentation or correspondence. □

If you are busy or not ready when they call, ask them to call back later. □

3 Taking and leaving messages

1 Listen to the recording and complete the missing information on the message pads below.

a) [Message pad copy]

b) [Telephone Messages copy]

Discussion

Compare the styles of the callers in the two conversations you have heard. How are they different? Comment on how the people answering the calls handle each caller.
Now listen to two more examples and complete the message pads below.

c) [Message pad image]

d) [Computer Services User Support image]

Discussion

Discuss the style of the various speakers in the last two conversations. How does the style change according to the speaker and the situation? Is the style used always the right one?
Practice

Use the following flow chart to make a complete telephone conversation. If you need to, listen again to the recordings you have heard and refer to the Language Checklist on page 32.

Now listen to the recording of a model answer.

4 Asking for and giving repetition

1 Listen to the recording of a conversation between a woman who calls the Human Resources Department in the Singapore branch of Michigan Insurance Inc. She has an appointment for a job interview.
   a) The first time you listen, say why she calls.
   b) Listen again. Notice that there are four requests for repetition. Why?

2 In each request for repetition, the person asking for the repetition also acknowledges it. It is important that any repetition is followed by an acknowledgement. Look at the following example that you have heard:

Listen again. Identify two other ways to acknowledge repetition.
3 Look at the following situations and listen to the recording for each one. In each case, suggest why someone might ask for repetition and suggest a suitable phrase.

Role play 1
Work in pairs. Student A should turn to File card 5A. Student B should turn to File card 5B.

Role play 2
Keep to the same A or B. Student A should turn to File card 6A and Student B should turn to File card 6B.

5 The secretarial barrier
1 Frequently a Sales Representative may make a “cold call” to a purchasing manager or some other influential person in a company. Imagine the following situation: Dominique Peron is Personal Assistant to Jacques Le Grand, Production Controller in Compagnie Tarbet Garonne (CTG), a Canadian manufacturer of paints and varnishes. M. Le Grand has asked not to be disturbed by unsolicited sales calls. Walter Barry from Dallas, Texas would like to speak to M. Le Grand.

a) Listen to the tape and say what Dominique is trying to do. What is her objective?

b) Dominique Peron finally makes a suggestion to the caller. What does she say?

2 Listen again. Complete the script below by writing down all the phrases used by Dominique Peron to block the caller.

CTG: Bonjour, ici La CTG.

WALTER BARRY: Good morning, Walter Barry, calling from Dallas, Texas. Could I speak to Monsieur Le Grand, please?

CTG: Who’s calling, please?

WALTER BARRY: I’m sorry – Walter Barry, from Dallas.

CTG: Er, __________ ________ _________ __________, please?

WALTER BARRY: Well, I understand that your company has a chemical processing plant. My own company, LCP, Liquid Control Products, is a leader in safety from leaks in the field of chemical processing. I would like to speak to M. Le Grand to discuss ways in which we could help CTG protect itself from such problems and save money at the same time.

CTG: Yes, I see. Well, M. Le Grand __________ ________ _________ __________ _________.

WALTER BARRY: Can you tell me when I could reach him?

CTG: He’s __________ ________ _________ _________ _________, then ________ _________ _________ in New York. So it is difficult to give you a time.

WALTER BARRY: Could you ask him to call me?

CTG: I __________ ________ _________ _________ _________ _________, he’s __________ ________ _________ _________ _________.

WALTER BARRY: Could I speak to someone else, perhaps?

CTG: Who in particular?

WALTER BARRY: A colleague for example?

CTG: You are speaking to his Personal Assistant. I can deal with calls for M. Le Grand.

WALTER BARRY: Yes, well ... er ... yes ... could I call him tomorrow?

CTG: No, _______ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________ _________
WALTER BARRY: Yes, that's very kind. I have your address.

CTG: Very good, Mr. er er ...

WALTER BARRY: Barry. Walter Barry from LCP in Dallas.

CTG: Right Mr. Barry. We look forward to hearing from you.

WALTER BARRY: Thank you. Goodbye.

CTG: Bye.

3 Listen to the beginning of another conversation. A Sales Manager from a tools manufacturer is calling a car components company.

a) Who does the caller ask to speak to?

b) What is the result?

c) Why is the caller successful / not successful here?

Role play 3

Work in pairs. Student A should refer to File card 7A and Student B should use File card 7B.

Role play 4

Keep to the same A or B. Student A should refer to File card 8A and Student B should turn to File card 8B.

TRANSFER

Think about any of the following – whichever is most likely for you now or in the future. Prepare the call (maximum three minutes preparation). Explain the details of the situation to a colleague or to your teacher, then practice the call.

1 Call a company to ask for product details or prices.

2 Call a hotel to make a reservation.

3 Call a travel agent to ask about flights to a city you need to visit.

If possible, record your conversation.

1 Cross-cultural communication on the telephone (1)

Listen to the three recorded extracts. Match each call to the appropriate picture below. In each case there is a communication problem.

What is the problem, and how could it be solved?

Conversations and Problems:

- Conversation 1 Picture — Problem
- Conversation 2 Picture — Problem
- Conversation 3 Picture — Problem
2 Look briefly at the text below. Before reading the text, say:
   a) what it is about
   b) what the message of the cartoon on the next page is
   c) what you think the text probably recommends.

3 Now read the text. Mark the sentences that follow as True (T) or False (F).

Barriers to oral communication

Oral communication usually presents more problems than written communication. If you’ve ever studied another language, you know it’s easier to write in that language than to conduct a conversation. Even if the other speaks your language, you may have a hard time understanding the pronunciation if the person isn’t proficient. For example, many non-native English speakers can’t distinguish between the English sounds v and w, so they say “very” for “very.” At the same time many people from the United States cannot pronounce the French r or the German ch.

Also, people use their voices in different ways, which can lead listeners to misunderstand their intentions. Russian speakers, for instance, speak in flat, level tones in their native tongue. When they speak English, they maintain this pattern, and non-Russian listeners may assume that the speakers are bored or rude. Middle Easterners tend to speak more loudly than Westerners and may therefore mistakenly be considered more emotional. On the other hand, the Japanese are soft-spoken, a characteristic that implies politeness or humility to Western listeners.

Idiomatic expressions are another source of confusion. If a U.S. executive tells an Egyptian executive that a certain product “doesn’t cut the mustard,” chances are communication will fail. Even when the words make sense, their meanings may differ according to the situation. For example, suppose you are dining with a German woman who speaks English quite well. You inquire, “More bread?” She says, “Thank you,” so you pass the bread. She looks confused; then she takes the breadbasket and sets it down without taking any. In German, thank you (danke) can also be used as a polite refusal. If the woman had wanted more bread she would have used the word please (bitte in German).

When speaking in English to people who speak English as a second language, you may find these guidelines helpful:

1. Try to eliminate noise. Pronounce words clearly, stop at distinct punctuation points, and make one point at a time.
2. Look for feedback. Be alert to signs of confusion in your listener. Realize that nods and smiles don’t necessarily mean understanding.
3. Rephrase your sentence when necessary. If someone doesn’t seem to understand you, choose simpler words; don’t just repeat the sentence in a louder voice.
4. Don’t talk down to the other person. Try not to overemphasize, and don’t “blame” the listener for not understanding. Use phrases such as “Am I going too fast?” rather than “Is this too difficult for you?”
5. Use objective, accurate language. Avoid throwing around adjectives such as fantastic and fabulous, which people from other cultures might consider unreal and overly dramatic.
6. Let other people finish what they have to say. If you interrupt, you may miss something important. You’ll also show a lack of respect.

Courtland L. Bovee and John V. Thill

a) Speaking is more difficult than writing.
b) Pronunciation presents special difficulties.
c) English spoken in a flat, level tone sounds uninterested.
d) Middle Easterners are more emotional than Westerners.
e) The Japanese tend to speak softly.
f) It’s good to use a lot of idiomatic and colloquial phrases.

3 Compare the two recordings.
   a) Identify three ways in which Ms. Hannam’s secretary offers to help Mr. Kramnik.
   b) Comment on the performance of the staff working for Swallow Exports.
   c) What style differences are there between the two conversations in 1 and 2 above? Why are they so different?

Practice 1

In the following conversation, a Singaporean exporter, Computech Arcos, plans to send goods from Singapore to Los Angeles. The caller wants to have a meeting with a U.S. shipping company, Intership.
Suggest suitable phrases for each step in the conversation, then practice the dialogue with a colleague.

Caller (Computech)
- Greeting.
- Introduce yourself.
- Confirm / correct.
- Ask for appointment with Mr. Dionis.
- Explain that you want to discuss shipping of goods from Singapore to Los Angeles.
- Suggest next week.
- Agree.
- Suggest Monday the 3rd.
- Agree. Suggest 10:00 a.m.
- Agree to email — hotel reservation is not necessary.
- Signal end of call.

Called Person (Internship)
- "Internship, good morning."
- Check name.
- Offer to help.
- Ask what it's about.
- Acknowledge — ask when would be a good time.
- Reject — Mr. Dionis is away.
- Suggest beginning of next month.
- Reject — On Monday Mr. Dionis is busy all day.
- Suggest Tuesday.
- Agree — ask for email to confirm.
- Offer to reserve hotel room.
- End call / thanks / refer to email, etc.

Now listen to the recording of a model answer.
Practice 2

Sending an email after a telephone conversation is an important way to check that there has been no misunderstanding in the conversation. Many companies also like to have written confirmation of things agreed by telephone.
Use the template below to write an email confirming the appointments made in the Computech/Intership conversation.

3 Changing appointments

1 List to a conversation between two colleagues, John and Pamela. Note:
   a) details of the original appointment
   b) reasons for change
   c) the new appointment.

2 a) How would you characterize the style of this conversation?
   b) Why is it like that?
3 Listen again to the conversation between John and Pamela. Note the four part structure of a conversation about changing appointments. Complete the missing words from the key phrases below:

(1) reference to original appointment

"We're __________ __________ __________ today..."

(2) Statement of problem  ➔  Need for change

"I'm __________, I really can't __________ __________."

(3) Making new appointment

"Can we __________ __________ __________ __________?"

(4) Confirmation

"See you __________ __________."

Role play 1

Work in pairs. Student A should turn to File card 9A. Student B should use File card 9B.

Role play 2

Keep to the same A or B. Student A should turn to File card 10A. Student B should look at File card 10B.

4 Ending a call

1 You will hear a recording of Catherine Welsh, a Communications Consultant, talking about using the telephone and, in particular, ending phone calls.
Unit 4

Before you listen, suggest what she might say about the following:
a) ways to avoid misunderstandings
b) a way to check that there's nothing left to say
c) the importance of small talk
d) ways to get off the phone when the other person keeps talking and you are very busy.

2 Now listen to what Catherine actually says. Compare her suggestions with what you suggested above. Discuss these and other suggestions.

3 Hank Rossler is an Export Manager for an American company in San Francisco. A sales representative, Paolo Arione from Brazil, is planning to visit him. You will hear two versions of how Hans ends a phone conversation with Paolo. Notice how they are different.
a) What is wrong in the first version?
b) Which key phrase is in the second ending that was not in the first one?

4 Listen to the next recording of a conversation between two colleagues, Celia Walton and Gerd Hoffmann, who work for a Swiss toy manufacturer.
a) What is Celia's problem?
b) How does she resolve it?

Practice 3

Sit back-to-back with a colleague and have a telephone conversation about any small talk topic. One of you should try hard to keep the conversation going. The other should politely try to get off the phone.

Reverse roles and repeat the exercise.

TRANSFER

Work in pairs, A and B, to devise and practice two role plays. First, each of you should think about your own work or real life situation. Choose a situation where you need to call someone to set up a meeting. Explain the situation to your partner. Then practice first one conversation, then the other. Remember to end the call appropriately.

TRANSFER

Next time you have to set up a real meeting by telephone, use the language and recommendations made in this unit. Prepare the call, think about the call structure (see Skills Checklist) and think about how to end the call.

1 Cross-cultural communication on the telephone (2)

1. The following text gives some advice about using the telephone between different cultures. Before you read it, quickly answer these questions about the organization of the text:
   a) What is the picture about?
   b) How many paragraphs are there?
   c) How many main points are probably in the article?

2. Read the text, then mark the sentences that follow as True (T) or False (F).

In some countries, like Italy and Britain, conversation is a form of entertainment. There is an endless flow of talk and if you break the flow for a second someone else will pick it up. In other countries there is a higher value placed on listening — it is not only impolite to break in but listeners will consider what has been said in silence before responding. Finland and Japan are examples.

If you are talking to people who are also speaking English as a foreign language, they are likely to leave gaps and silences while they search for words or try to make sense of what you have just said. So be patient and try not to interrupt, as you would hope they would be patient with you.

Every country has its own codes of etiquette. For example it is common for North Americans and the British to use first names very quickly, even in a letter or fax or telephone call. Such instant familiarity is much less acceptable in the rest of Europe and Asia where even business partners and colleagues of many years’ acquaintance address each other by the equivalent of Mr. or Mrs. and the last name or job title.

So stick to last names unless you specifically agree to do otherwise. Don’t interpret the other person’s formality as stiffness or unfriendliness. On the other hand, if business partners with a North American or British background get on to first name terms right away, don’t be surprised.
Unfortunately there's a problem ...

Above all, one should remember that people do not usually mind if their own codes are broken by foreigners as long as they sense consideration and goodwill. This is much more important than a set of rules of etiquette.

Adapted from Faxes, phones and foreigners with kind permission of British Telecommunications plc.

a) For the British and the Italians it is normal to interrupt the other speaker during the conversation.

b) A special importance is attached to listening in Japanese and Finnish cultures.

c) One should interrupt and try to help speakers who may have difficulty in saying what they want to say.

d) It is unusual for Americans and British to use first names early in a business relationship.

e) It doesn't matter if you break certain social rules if it is clear that you are sensitive to other people.

f) Etiquette is the critical point in using the telephone between different cultures.

3 Which do you think is the most important point?

2 Problem solving on the telephone

1 Lee Santana is a telecommunications equipment retailer from Los Angeles. Listen to the recording of a conversation he has with a supplier, Yoshinaga Takafumi. He works for AKA Company, a Japanese telephone systems manufacturer.

   a) Identify the problem and the suggested solution.
   b) Listen again. Do you think Yoshinaga Takafumi provided good customer service? In what ways?
   c) Notice how the conversation follows the structure shown here:
Unfortunately there's a problem ...

Customer

Introduction and getting who you want.

Small talk.

Stating problem.

Agreeing to suggested solution.

Confirmation.

End call.

Practice 1

Work in pairs, A and B. Create a dialogue based on the cues below. A is the Client Services Manager of Keene Investments who calls B, a financial adviser. A is B’s boss.

Eric/Erica King (A)

Introduce yourself and say there's a problem.

Respond - explain problem: A client - Sandra Henson - has called. She expected CH to visit yesterday. No one came.

Respond appropriately. Ask CH if (s)he wrote with details of the visit.

End call (small talk).

Charles/Charlotte Heppel (B)

Answer the phone.

Respond - ask what?

Respond - the client has made a mistake. The appointment is for next week.

Yes. Offer to call Sandra Henson.

End call.

Now listen to a recording of a model answer.
3 Complaints

1 Hamid Nadimi of Ahmed Al-Hamid & Co. in Riyadh calls Peter Siegelman, from Stella Communications, Houston, Texas, with a complaint.
   a) Listen and identify the problem.

   b) Listen again and write the remaining key information on the flow chart:

      Problem?
      Mr. Nadimi complains that Response?

      Mr. Siegelman says __________

      Action decided?
      Mr. Siegelman promises ________________

Discuss how Peter Siegelman handles the call. Do you think he said the right things?

2 Work in pairs to create a new version of the above conversation beginning with the same basic problem. Provide better customer service in your version.

3 Imagine you are Peter Siegelman. Following the above phone call and then a conversation with Mr. Bains, write an email to Mr. Nadimi. Tell him Mr. Bains will return in four days with the parts and the system will be repaired within five days. Use the email template below:

   STELLA COMMUNICATIONS

   TO               hamidnadimi@ahmedalhamid.com (Hamid Nadimi)
   FROM             p.siegelman@stella.com

   Customer Services
Practice 2

Suggest what the person complaining and the person handling the complaint could say in the following situations. Then listen to the recordings of model answers.

1. A printer purchased three months ago has broken down for a fourth time.

2. An order from a hospital for 500 x 100 ml of medicated gel has not arrived.

3. A travel agent promised to send out an airline ticket for departure tomorrow. It has not arrived.
Practice 3

Use the flow chart below as the basis for a telephone conversation involving a complaint.

Berraondo S.A
- Greeting.
- Introduce yourself.
- Explain problem.
  - Order HF5618 for 20 printers.
  - Only 17 have arrived.
- This is second time you have received an incomplete delivery.
- Agree – say you need the other three printers urgently.
  - Delays are costing you goodwill – unhappy customers.
- Ask for a promise of delivery date – ASAP.
- Complain – you want dispatch now.
- Ask for email to confirm dispatch.

Tao Loon Company [Sales Office]
- Answer.
- Offer to help.
- Express surprise.
- Suggest possible error in order administration.
- Explain stock problems.
- Promise next Monday.
- Express regret – not possible.
- Agree – apologize.
- End call.

Now listen to the recording of a model answer.
Role play

Work in pairs, A and B. Student A should look at File card 11A and Student B should look at File card 11B.

TRANSFER

Think of examples of where you have needed to resolve a problem on the telephone, perhaps with a colleague (an internal problem) or with another company (an external problem).
Did the problem involve a complaint?
Say what the situation was and what problem occurred.
Explain any difficulty you had and say how the problem was resolved.

TRANSFER

Prepare a conversation typical of the sorts of problems or complaints you are faced with in your working life. Explain the situation and the roles involved to a colleague and then perform the conversation.

Skills Checklist
Using the Telephone (3)

If you receive a complaint:
- consider your company's reputation
- express surprise
- ask for details
- suggest action
- promise to investigate
- make reasonable suggestions, offers to help.

Consider your customer and:
- show polite understanding
- use active listening
- reassure customer.

If you make a complaint:
- prepare for the call
- be sure of the facts
- have documentation available
- decide what you require to resolve the problem - at least partially - or completely.

Who is to blame?
Who is responsible?
Are you talking to the right person?
Was your order or your specifications correct?
Were you partly responsible for arrangements that went wrong, e.g. transportation?
Does responsibility actually lie elsewhere, i.e. with a third party?

If you do not get what you want:
- keep control - state what you need calmly
- do you need to continue to do business with the other side?
- if you do, keep a good relationship
- express disappointment - not anger
- don't use threats - unless you have to!

1 Presentation technique and preparation

1 Look at the photo. Discuss or make notes on the characteristics of a good presentation. Think about both the content and the way the speaker presents information.
The text below contains several recommendations for giving effective presentations. Scan the text to match the seven points below to the right paragraph, a–g. You do not have to read the text in detail.

1. Choose visuals to support the presentation.
2. Have a simple, clear structure.
3. Show enthusiasm.
4. Use PowerPoint.
5. Making informal presentations.
6. Consider the audience.
7. Dealing with nerves.

What advice from Luis E. Lamela do you think is the most important?

a. The key to a successful oral presentation is to keep things simple. I try to stick to three points. I give an overview of the points, present them to the audience, and summarize them at the end.

b. My purpose or desired outcome, the type of audience, and the message dictate the formality of the presentation, the kind of visuals, the number of anecdotes, and the jokes or examples that I use. Most of my presentations are designed to sell, to explain, or to motivate. When I plan the presentation, I think about the audience. Are they professionals or nonprofessionals? Purchasers or sellers? Providers or users? Internal or external? My purpose and the audience mix determine the tone and focus of the presentation.

c. When I make a presentation, I use the visuals as the outline. I will not use notes. I like to select the kind of visual that not only best supports the message but also best fits the audience and the physical location. PowerPoint, slides, overhead transparencies, and flip charts are the four main kinds of visuals I use.

d. PowerPoint and slide presentations work well when I am selling a product or an idea to large groups (15 people or more). In this format, I like to use examples and graphs and tables to support my message in a general way.

e. In small presentations, including one-on-ones and presentations where the audience is part of the actual process, I like transparencies or flip charts. They allow me to be more informal.

f. I get very, very nervous when I speak in public. I handle my nervousness by just trying to look as if, instead of talking to so many people, I’m walking in and talking to a single person. I don't like to speak behind lecterns. Instead, I like to get out and just be open and portray that openness: “I’m here to tell you a story.”

g. I try very hard for people to enjoy my presentations by showing enthusiasm on the subject and by being sincere. I try not to use a hard sell – I just try to report or to explain – and I think that comes across. In addition, it helps that I am speaking about something that I very strongly believe in and something that I really, really enjoy doing.

Luis E. Lamela, February 11, 1997
3 What are the key considerations involved in preparing a presentation?

4 Listen to a group of management trainees talking about the preparation of presentations. They mention eight key areas, each represented by one of the pictures below. Number the pictures in the order in which they are mentioned.

Discussion

Comment on any of the points mentioned in the discussion you have heard. Which do you think are the most important? Do you feel it is necessary to write out a presentation?
2 The audience

1 Read the comments from the audience who are listening to a presentation at an international conference. What caused the problem in each case?
   a) “What on earth is he talking about?” “I have no idea!”
   b) “Hey, Sarah! Wake up! He’s finished!”
   c) “Read that! I can’t read that! I’d need a pair of binoculars!”
   d) “Speak up! I can’t hear a thing!”
   e) “Summarize four main points? I only noticed one! Have I been asleep?”

2 Look at the following situations.

A medical conference in Tokyo with papers on new techniques in open heart surgery.

The Purchasing and Product Managers of a Taiwanese company interested in buying some production equipment from your company.

An internal meeting of administrative staff to discuss a new accounting procedure.

A staff meeting to discuss a charity event for earthquake victims.

Imagine you have to give a brief presentation in two of the previous situations, plus one other situation that you decide on. Make brief notes on the following:
   a) Will your talk be formal or informal?
   b) What are the audience’s expectations in terms of technical detail, expertise, etc.?
   c) What is the audience’s probable level of specialist knowledge? Are they experts or non-experts?
   d) How long will your talk be: five minutes, twenty minutes, half a day, or longer?
   e) What is your policy on questions? Will the audience interrupt or will they ask questions afterwards? Will there be any discussion?
   f) How will you help the audience to remember what you tell them?
3 Structure (1) The introduction

1 In any presentation the beginning is crucial. Certainly some things are essential in an introduction and others are useful. Here is a list of what could be included in an introduction. Mark them according to how necessary they are using the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Essential</th>
<th>Useful</th>
<th>Not necessary</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Subject / title of talk.
- Introduction to oneself, job title, etc.
- Reference to questions and/or discussion.
- Reference to the program for the day.
- Reference to how long you are going to speak for.
- Reference to the visual aids you plan to use.
- The scope of your talk: what is and is not included.
- An outline of the structure of your talk.
- A summary of the conclusions.

2 Listen to the beginning of a presentation on the marketing plans for a new telecommunications system produced by Telco.
   a) Is it a good introduction?
   b) Why? Why not?
   c) Label the structure of the talk.
3 Now listen to a second example of an introduction to a presentation. This one is about plans to develop a new production plant in Taiwan.

As you listen, think about these points:
- a) Is it a good introduction?
- b) Why? Why not?
- c) Label the structure of the talk.

4 Work in pairs. Each of you should suggest a possible phrase for each of the cues below.
- a) Greet your audience.
- b) Introduce yourself.
- c) Give the title of your talk.
- d) Describe the structure of your talk.
- e) Explain that the audience can interrupt if they want.
- f) Say something about the length of your talk.
- g) Say a colleague will be showing a video later.

Now listen to the recording of a model introduction based on suitable phrases for a–g.
Practice 1

Use the outline below to prepare a brief introduction to a talk on safety for a manufacturing company.

New safety conditions for production staff

1. Protective clothing
2. Training in accident prevention
3. Changes to working practices

Questions / discussion

Listen to the recording of a model answer after you have given your own version.

Practice 2

Give a one minute introduction only to a talk on any topic you like. If you cannot think of a topic, choose from the list below:

- your hometown
- your very first job
- a thing you really like
- your favorite sport
- eating out
- your previous job
- tourism
- vacations
- your hobbies

TRANSFER

Prepare an introduction to a short talk on one of the following:
- your company and / or its products / services
- any company you know well
- an institution that you know well.

Decide who the audience is. Make notes. Look at the Skills Checklist on page 62 and remember in particular to consider the points under the heading Audience. Look at the Language Checklist on page 62.

Do not write the whole text. When you are ready, practice your introduction. If you can, make a recording. When you have finished, answer the following questions:
- Did you make a recording? If you did, listen to it now.
- Does the recording sound well prepared and competent?
- Did you read everything you said from detailed notes?
- Did you talk using only brief notes?
- Did you speak clearly and not too fast?
- Did you outline the topic, structure and content of your talk?
- Did you refer to audience questions and to discussion?
- How could you improve your introduction?

1 Subject

Complete the spaces in the five opening sentences of presentations.

1. My t________ today is about our plans for entering new markets.
2. I’d l________ to say something today about the AX project.
3. The presentation will give you an o________ of our organization.
4. The t________ of my talk is the “Single European Market and Competition Policy”.
5. This morning I want to e________ the special relationship between us and our suppliers.

2 Presentation structure

The classic presentation has three parts. Here are six sentences from the introduction to a presentation. Put them in the right order.

a) I’m going to talk about the new organization of our European Sales.

b) Afterwards you can ask any questions or say what you think.

c) Good afternoon, everyone. My presentation today is about changes in our organization.

d) Finally I’ll describe the new arrangement – the new system.

e) First I’ll describe the current situation – how things are now.

f) Then I’ll explain why we have to change this.

3 Introducing your presentation

Make verb + noun phrases by matching the verbs below to the right words. See the example.

1 to talk about a) questions
2 to explain b) an overview
3 to say c) a few words
4 to give d) the problem
5 to divide e) something
6 to answer f) the talk into x parts

Your time's up anyway.

1 What points do the illustrations imply?
2 Look at the pictures below. Label the tools used to present visual information.

3 Comment on how visual information is being presented in these pictures, then produce five key recommendations for how to use visual supports in a presentation.
4 Read the text below and find:
a) eight advantages of using visual aids
b) three warnings about using visual aids.

Dinkel and Parnham (1985) say that “The great danger (in using visual aids) is that presenters place the major emphasis on visual aids and relegate themselves to the minor role of narrator or technician. You are central to the presentation. The visual aid needs you, your interpretation, your explanation, your conviction and your justification.”

Visual aids can make information more memorable and they help the speaker. However, they must literally support what the speaker says and not simply replace the spoken information. It is also not enough to just read text from a visual aid.

There are many advantages to the correct use of visual aids. They can show information which is not easily expressed in words or they can highlight information. They cause the audience to employ another sense to receive information, they bring variety and therefore increase the audience's attention. They save time and they clarify complex information.

2 Talking about the content of visual aids

2 A project manager for FDF, a manufacturing company, gives a presentation on the reasons for choosing a particular location for a new plant. Listen to four extracts from his talk.

a) Match each extract (1–4) to the correct picture below.
b) Listen again. What is the key point the speaker makes about each picture?

Extract 1: .................................................................

Extract 2: .................................................................

Extract 3: .................................................................

3 a) Suggest a typical structure for how a speaker could describe a visual aid, such as the graph below, taken from a presentation, "World energy – going up the chimney," given at an environmental conference.

b) "It shows ____________________"
c) "The vertical ____________________ while ____________"
d) "Clearly, we can see that ____________________"

Now listen to the recording.

3 Describing change

The vocabulary in this section is used to describe movement or trends. This task checks your knowledge of several key words and phrases used to describe movement. For example:
Match the following pictures with the correct phrase:

   to __________________________
Role play

Work in pairs, A and B. Student A should look at File card 12A and Student B should look at File card 12B. Look at the Language Checklist if you need to.

Practice 2

Draw a line graph for use in a presentation. Choose any situation or subject, real or imagined. If possible draw the picture on an overhead transparency. Then present the graph as you would in a presentation. Your description should last no more than a minute.

If possible, construct a graph that makes comparisons possible. Use solid, dotted or broken lines (or colors) to make the picture clear.

TRANSFER

Think of your professional or study situation. Prepare any pictures or visuals for use in a presentation. Prepare a description for each one. Record your description without reading directly from your notes, though you may of course look at the pictures. If you can, video record your presentation of the pictures. Treat the video camera as "one of the audience." Later, if you video recorded your presentation, watch it first with the sound off. Consider the following:

- the appearance and design of the visual
- your body position in relation to "the audience"
- any gestures, use of hands, etc.
- your maintaining eye contact.

Now either watch your video recording with the sound on or listen to the audio recording. Consider the following:

- the clarity of your message
- the appropriateness of the words you used
- highlighting of the main facts
- the amount of detail -- not too much.

Skills Checklist

Using visual supports

Visuals must be:
• well prepared
• well chosen
• clear

Available media
Use media which suit the room and audience size.
• overhead projector (OHP)
  – transparencies / OHTs / slides
• slide projector
  – slides / diapositives
• video / computer graphics / flip chart / marker board
• computer / PowerPoint • Internet

Use of visual aids
Combination of OHP and flip chart with markers often good.
First visual should give the title of talk.
Second should show structure of talk – main headings.
Keep text to minimum – never just read text from visuals.
Do not use too many visuals – guide is one visual per two minutes.
Use pauses – give audience time to comprehend picture.
Never show a visual until you want to talk about it.
Remove visual once finished talking about it.
Turn off equipment not in use.
Use of PowerPoint or similar software is a great presentations tool.
Always check the English in your visual supports.

Use of color
For slides, white writing on blue / green is good.
Use different colors if color improves clarity of message (e.g. pie charts).
Use appropriate color combinations. yellow and pink are weak colors on white backgrounds.

Use of room and machinery
Check equipment in advance, especially computer connections (e.g. data projector).
Check organization of room, equipment, seating, microphones, etc.
Use a pointer on the screen (not your hand).
Have a good supply of markers.
Check order of your slides / OHTs, etc.

You in relation to your audience
Decide appropriate level of formality, and dress accordingly.
Keep eye contact at least 80% of the time.
Use available space.
Move around, unless restricted by a podium.
Use gesture.
Quick Communication Check

1 Describing trends

Match the phrase on the right with its opposite on the left.

1. get better  a) a massive increase
2. reach a peak  b) fluctuate
3. fall  c) get worse
4. an increase  d) reach a low point
5. stay the same  e) rise
6. a slight fall  f) a drop

2 Visual tools

Complete the crossword.

1 and 2 Across A talk using visuals from a computer and a data projector (10, 12).
3 and 4 Across The full name for an OHP (8, 9).
5 Across Photographs that you show on a screen using a projector (6).
6 Down A film that you show on a TV monitor (5).
7 Down and 8 Across A board with a lot of large paper sheets fixed to it for writing on (4, 5).
9 Down and 10 Across A board that you can write on with felt pens and wipe off the writing easily (10).
11 Across A “see-through” acetate sheet that you can show using an OHP (12).

3 Describing visuals

Complete the text below, which is from a presentation on changes in the weather and effects on a coastline.

This picture (a) __________ the problem we have had in recent years. On the left you can (b) __________ the damage to the coast caused by high waters. The next two pictures (c) __________ the situation now with ten years ago. Now if we (d) __________ rainfall over a 100-year period, it's (e) __________ that there has been more rain. The (f) __________ is for more rain over the years.
Holding the audience's attention

"First you say what you're going to say. Then you say it. Then you tell them what you've said."

"All acts of communication have a beginning, a middle and an end."

As I was saying a couple of hours ago, thiazides may potentiate the action of other hypertensives but in combination with other hypertensive agents there may be precipitation of azotaemia as well as cumulative effects of chlorothiazide but we'll talk about that later. Now, as I was saying ...
2 Read the following passage and identify at least six recommendations about speaking technique which can help to make the message in a presentation clear.

You’re lost if you lose your audience

Clear objectives, clear plan, clear signals: the secrets of presentation success

Any presentation requires a clear strategy or plan to help you reach your objectives. The aim is not to spend twenty minutes talking non-stop and showing a lot of nice pictures. It is to convey a message that is worth hearing to an audience who wants to hear it. However, how many speakers really hold an audience’s attention? What is the secret for those who do? First, find out about the audience and what they need to know. Plan what you’re going to say and say it clearly and concisely.

A good speaker uses various signals to help hold the audience’s attention and make the information clear. One type of signal is to introduce a list with a phrase like There are three things we have to consider. The speaker then says what the three things are and talks about each one at the required level of detail. For example: There are three types of price that we have to think about: economic price, market price and psychological price. Let’s look at each of these in more detail. First, economic price. This is based on production costs and the need to make a profit … and the speaker goes on to describe this type of price. After that, he goes on to talk about the market price and so on.

Another signaling technique is to give a link between parts of the presentation. Say where one part of the talk ends and another starts. For example, a well organized presentation usually contains different parts and progression from one part to the next must be clear, with phrases like That’s all I want to say about the development of the product. Now let’s turn to the actual marketing plan. This technique is very helpful to the audience, including those who are mainly interested in one part only.

Another type of signaling is sequencing of information. This usually follows a logical order, perhaps based on time. So a project may be described in terms of the background, the present situation and the future. Key words in sequencing information are first, then, next, after that, later, at the end, finally, etc.

Still another technique which helps to emphasize key points is careful repetition. Examples are As I’ve already said, there is no alternative but to increase production by 100 per cent or I’d like to emphasize the main benefit of the new design – it achieves twice as much power with half as much fuel.

A final point concerns timing and quantity of information. Psychologists have suggested that concentration is reduced after about twenty minutes without a break or a change in activity. Furthermore, audiences should not be overburdened with technical details or given too many facts to remember. It is claimed that to ask people to remember more than three things in a five minute talk is too much. Some say that seven is the maximum number of any length of presentation. Any such calculations are probably not very reliable, but every speaker needs to think about exactly how much information of a particular type a specific audience is likely to absorb and to plan accordingly.
2 Structure (2) The main body

1 Read the following text and identify the following:
   a) the relationship between the main body of the presentation and the introduction
   b) a recommendation on one way to divide the main body of a talk.

The main body of the presentation contains the details of the subject or themes described in the introduction. All the above techniques are especially useful in making the main body easily understood. They help the audience to follow the information and to remember it. They also help the speaker to keep to the planned structure and to know exactly what stage has been reached at all times during the presentation. Clear structure doesn’t just help the audience! In many presentations the main body can be usefully divided into different parts. The main parts, each with a main heading, are referred to in the Introduction (see Unit 6). Clearly there are many ways to divide the main body of a presentation and often different parts will themselves be divided into smaller sections of information:

3 Listing information

1 Listen to two presentations of the same information about climatic change. Which is easiest to understand: Example 1 or 2? Why?

2 Now read the transcript of one of the two examples. Underline the words and phrases which list key information and give signals to the audience.

“... climatic changes in the Northern hemisphere may have been the result of three types of effect on the environment: first, volcanic activity, second, industrial pollution, and thirdly, transportation. Let's look at these in more detail. First, volcanic eruptions. The 1991 eruption may have contributed to ozone damage causing the unusually high world temperatures in 1992. The second key area is industrial contamination. Industry puts important quantities of noxious gases and chemicals into the atmosphere. There are four important gases released by burning fossil fuels. These are CO$_2$, SO$_2$, CO and NO$_2$. They contribute to the so-called “greenhouse” effect and global warming. The second main area of industrial pollution of the atmosphere is the release of ozone damaging chemicals like chlorofluorocarbons and polychlorobiphenols. These are used in refrigeration, some manufacturing processes and in fire extinguishers. Finally, the third source of damage to the environment is transportation. Car and plane engines are a problem because they release the so-called “greenhouse” gases such as CO$_2$.”

Here are the visuals from a brief presentation to management trainees studying international marketing. Use the information to give a short summary of international marketing strategies using listing techniques.

Phase One

EXPORT MARKETING

- Home base production and management
- Direct selling to export markets
- Agents and distributors
- Possible sales centres in overseas markets
- Low investment

Phase Two

INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

- Production expanded to overseas markets
- Local management
- Cost centres abroad
- Increased local employment
- High investment

Phase Three

GLOBAL MARKETING

- Global brand name
- Established in all major world markets
- Global ‘identity’
- Cost centres in all major markets
- Complex global production
- High investment

Begin as follows.

'Good morning, everyone. I'm going to give a brief summary of the transition from export marketing to global marketing. Basically, there are three phases in this transition. These are, first, export marketing; second, international marketing; and third, global marketing. Let's describe the first phase, which is export marketing …'

3 Suggest other language that can be used to make links between different parts of a presentation.
Practice 2

Choose one of the situations below to present a short extract from a presentation. Use linking expressions to connect the different parts of the talk.

Situation 1
You are a Project Manager of Usui, a Japanese electronic components manufacturer. You have to give a presentation to colleagues explaining the company’s decision to build a factory in Singapore.

Important factors influencing the decision are:
a) local employment conditions: well-trained workforce, experienced in electronics industry
b) local economic factors and market potential: strong growth in Singapore economy, good location, access to Southeast Asia market
c) good economic potential in the region, major shipping centre
d) available subsidies, favorable tax environment: government wants inward investment.

Situation 2
You are a design consultant working for Land Inc., a New York-based financial services company. The company plans to build new offices for its European headquarters in Brussels. There are three proposals for the design. Present an overview of each proposal to senior executives of the company.

a) Fox Lee Associates: British
   - $6.0m
   - conventional air conditioning and heating system
   - Neo-classical design

b) Fukagawa: Japanese
   - $8.5m
   - ultra-modern
   - solar energy-based heating and air conditioning

c) Harald Khaan Group: American
   - $8.0m
   - 20% more office space
   - low-running costs, conventional heating
   - modern design
   - exceptional energy conservation
5 Sequencing

1. Listen to part of a presentation about a construction project in Seoul, South Korea. Number the stages in the project in the right order.
   - Put out a call for bids for construction.
   - Technical consultation to determine design needs.
   - Purchasing procedure.
   - Building.
   - Put out a request for proposals (RFP) to architects.
   - Select the best proposal.
   - Commission research to find best location for plant.
   - Period of consultation with architects over details.

2. Listen again, this time focusing on the language used to indicate the sequence of events. Identify seven words or phrases that are used in this way.
   - a) First of all
   - b) Next
   - c) When
   - d) The time be
   - e) This
   - f) He
   - g) The time to

3. Suggest other words and phrases that indicate the sequence of events.

Practice 3
Describe any simple process or the diagram below using sequencing language.

Practice 4

Use the information below to give a presentation of about seven minutes. Use listing, linking and sequencing where necessary.

You have been asked by GUBU Inc., a Boston-based toy manufacturer, to advise them on a business plan to reverse falling sales. Make a presentation to GUBU executives. Tell them your recommendations.

Sales of GUBU toys

Introduction

1. Global decline in sales

Comparison between combined sales for 2001 and 2003 for 16 products
2. Reasons for decline in sales
   - poor investment in new products
   - old products losing appeal, not fashionable
   - declining marketing budget

3. Proposed action to reverse trend
   - drop half of existing product range
   - new product investment
   - new marketing strategy with heavy marketing investment

4. Prospects

TRANSFER

Prepare an informal presentation on a topic of your own choice.
- It does not have to concern your work or studies but should be a topic which interests you.
- Think about having a clear introduction (see Unit 6) and a clear structure.
- Include visual aids (see Unit 7) if you like.

Give the presentation to your teacher and/or colleagues.

AIMS
- Structure (3) The end
- Questions and discussion
- Summarizing and concluding

1 Structure (3) The end

1 What does the end of a presentation contain?

2 What is the difference, if any, between a summary and a conclusion?
3 Comment on the different approaches used by the two speakers in the photos. Can you suggest reasons for the different endings?

So, I think that's all. Now, any questions?

Well, that concludes my talk, now we can move to the discussion. If anyone has any comments or points to raise ...

4 In which of the following situations do you think a discussion is more appropriate than questions?
- A sales representative's presentation of a new product.
- A CEO's statement on corporate policy.
- A politician's speech on transportation policy.
- A team leader's talk to colleagues on the next phase of a project.
- A manager's proposal to a group of senior executives on improving productivity.

2 Summarizing and concluding

1 Listen to the end of a presentation by Ben Seznec, Marketing Director of Foss, an agricultural machinery manufacturer. His talk is about company valuation. What is his key message?

2 Listen again. Is this a summary or a conclusion or is it both? Explain your answer.

3 Listen again and complete the following phrases.
   a) “I'd like to _______ with a short _______ of the _______ _______.”
   b) “So, what are _______ _______ that _______ can _______ from this?
      I think most importantly, we _______ _______ build up …”
Practice 1

Look at the following overhead transparencies used in a presentation on safety procedures on an oil platform. Use them to reconstruct the end of the presentation.

Begin as follows:

"That concludes the main part of my talk. Now I'd like to ..."

Summary

1. Three incidents in the year show communication problems.
2. 35% of incidents in the last 5 years contain some degree of communication problem.
3. Existing communication procedures are not considered satisfactory.

Conclusion

1. Training must place more emphasis on communication procedures.
2. Program of regular review of communication procedures should be introduced.

Now compare your version with a recording of a model answer.

3 Questions and discussion

1. Listen to a recording of two different ways of ending the same sales presentation by Marisa Repp about an automatic warehouse system, the Storo. Decide if they:
   - invite the audience to ask questions
   - are a lead-in to a discussion
   - invite the audience to ask questions and have a discussion
   - request comments.

2. Suggest alternative endings for the presentation you have just heard.

3. Listen to three examples of possible endings to other sales presentations. Match each one to the comments below.
   A A hard sell approach, mainly interested in selling the product.
   B Weak, as if the speaker lacks confidence.
   C Customer-friendly, wants to help the customer.
4 Read the following text and identify:
   a) a potential problem at the end of a presentation
   b) three ways to avoid the problem.

Open for questions: The silent disaster
A nightmare scenario is as follows: the speaker ends his talk with the words “Any questions?”
This is met by total silence. Not a word. Then an embarrassed shuffling, a cough … . How can this be avoided? A possible answer is that if the presentation has been good and the audience is clearly interested, someone will have something to say.

Another way to avoid the nightmare of utter silence is to end with an instruction to the audience. This should ensure immediate audience response. Giving an instruction is often useful in sales presentations and where the audience has special requirements. Here are two examples:

A sales presentation
After talking about his or her products or services, the speaker wants the audience to explain their needs and says:

“Okay – I’ve told you about the ways Snappo can help companies like yours. Now for us to do that, we need to know more about the way you work. For example, tell me about your particular situation, tell me what in particular may interest you … .”

This places a responsibility on the audience to respond – unless of course they have a completely negative view of both the presenter and the message! Assuming they are well-disposed towards the potential supplier, it is probably in their interests to offer some information and begin discussion.

A Training Manager
Speaking to an audience of Department Managers, vice-presidents, or potential trainees, the Training Manager has outlined recommendations and explained what is available. He/she can close with:

“Okay! I’ve told you what we can offer. Now tell me what are your impressions, what are your priorities and what else do you need to know now?”

Another option is for the speaker to have a question prepared. Ask something which you know the audience will have to answer. This often breaks the ice and starts discussion. It may be possible to single out an individual who is most likely to have a question to ask you or a comment to make, or it may be apparent from earlier contact perhaps during the reception or a coffee break, that a particular individual has something to say or to ask.
5 Handling questions is thought by many speakers to be the most difficult part of a presentation. Why do you think this is? How do you think difficulties can be minimized?

Listen to Penny Yates talking about the difficulties that can arise in dealing with questions after a presentation. As you listen, check any of the following pieces of advice that she gives.

- Be polite.
- Listen very carefully.
- Ask for repetition or clarification.
- Keep calm.
- Tell the truth (most of the time!).
- Don’t say anything you’ll regret later.
- Check understanding if necessary by paraphrasing.
- Agree partially before giving own opinion: Yes, but ...

6 A Conference on Land Development in South America included presentations on Financial Support for Business. Listen to four extracts of different speakers’ handling of questions and discussion. Use the table below to mark which extracts are examples of good (✓) or bad (✗) technique. Give reasons for your answers.

Practice 2

Imagine that you have given a talk on Marketing in Japan at a conference on business trends. What would you say in these situations?

1 At the end of your presentation, move to comments / discussion / questions.
2 A member of the audience suggests that you said that many small retail outlets, small stores, had actually closed down in recent years. In fact, you said this process has been going on for a long time. Politely correct the other person.
3 Ask the audience for comments on why this has happened.
4 Agree with someone’s suggestions, but suggest other factors. One is the increasing number of take-overs of smaller companies.
5 A member of the audience says the following: “I … I understand that a report showed that 700 new soft drinks came out in Japan in 1990 and one year later 90% had failed. That’s a pretty amazing figure …” Paraphrasing this, ask if in the U.S. or Europe that could not happen.
6 Someone suggests that in Japan there has always been an emphasis on quality and on products. In the West market research has been more developed. Agree, but say the situation is changing.
7 A speaker says something you don’t understand. What do you say?
Practice 3

Divide into groups of four. Each person should prepare, in about two to three minutes, part of a short presentation on any topic he/she knows well.

Describe just one or two aspects of the topic in some detail for about three to four minutes. Then end what you say with a brief summary and/or conclusion. Finally, move to questions/comments or discussion.

Your colleagues should:
- ask questions
- ask for more details
- ask for clarification / repetition
- paraphrase part(s) of what you said
- offer more information based on their knowledge and/or experience.

For each contribution, respond appropriately.

Repeat the exercise until everyone in the group has been in the hot seat.

TRANSFER

Give the end of a presentation on a topic of your choice. Include either a summary or a conclusion and move to questions and/or discussion.

The end of the presentation

Ending the main body of the presentation
Okay, that ends (the third part of) my talk.
That’s all I want to say for now on ...

Beginning the summary and/or conclusion
I’d like to end by emphasizing the main point(s).
I’d like to end with ...
– a summary of the main points.
– some observations based on what I’ve said.
– some conclusions / recommendations.
– a brief conclusion.

Concluding
There are two conclusions / recommendations.
What we need is ...
I think we have to ...
I think we have seen that we should ...

Inviting questions and/or introducing discussion
That concludes (the formal part of) my talk.
(Thanks for listening) … Now I’d like to invite your comments.
Now we have (half an hour) for questions and discussion.
Alright. Now, any questions or comments?
So, now I’d be very interested to hear your comments.

Handling questions

Understood but difficult or impossible to answer
That’s a difficult question to answer in a few words.
– It could be ...
– In my experience ...
– I would say ...
– I don’t think I’m the right person to answer that. Perhaps (Mr. Holmes) can help ...
– I don’t have much experience in that field ...

Understood but irrelevant or impossible to answer in the time available
I’m afraid that’s outside the scope of my talk / this session. If I were you I’d discuss that with ...
I’ll have to come to that later, perhaps during the break since we’re running out of time.

Not understood
Sorry, I’m not sure I’ve understood. Could you repeat?
Are you asking if … ?
Do you mean … ?
I didn’t catch (the last part of) your question.
If I have understood you correctly, you mean … ? Is that right?

Checking that your answer is sufficient
Does that answer your question?
Is that okay?
Skills Checklist
Structure (3) Ending the presentation

A summary
- Restates main point(s).
- Restates what the audience must understand and remember.
- Contains no new information.
- Is short.

A conclusion
- States the logical consequences of what has been said.
- Often contains recommendations.
- May contain new and important information.
- Is short.

Questions
- Inviting questions implies that the audience is less expert than the speaker.
- Beware of the "nightmare scenario" – total silence! Have one or two prepared questions to ask the audience.
- Keep control of the meeting.

Discussion
- Inviting discussion gives the impression that the audience has useful experience, so is often more diplomatic.
- You still need to control the discussion.

Inviting discussion and questions
- Often the best solution.
- Keep control, limit long contributions, watch the time.

Handling questions
- Listen very carefully.
- Ask for repetition or clarification if necessary.
- Paraphrase the question to check you understand it.
- Give yourself time to think – perhaps by paraphrasing the question.
- Check that the question is relevant. If not, don’t answer if you don’t want to.
- Refer questioner to another person if you can’t answer.
- Suggest you’ll answer a question later if you prefer.
- Check that the questioner is happy with your answer: eye contact and a pause is often sufficient.
- Keep control.
- Don’t allow one or two people to dominate.
- Be polite.
- Signal when time is running out – "Time for one last question."
- At the end, thank the audience.

Finally
- Refer to next contact or invite future contact.
- Refer to documentation, handouts or other information.
- Invite further comments or questions via email.
- Say goodbye and thanks.

2 That’s really all I wanted / can / think to say. I’d like to recommend / summarize / conclude the three things I have described.
3 Can I finish / recommend / suggest now with some recommendations?
4 To conclude, I’d like to speak / tell / say what I think is the most important thing.

2 Summarizing, concluding and recommending

Change the two paragraphs below with words from the boxes.

Okay, I think that is the (a) _______ of the (b) _______ part of my talk.
I’d now (c) _______ to say a few words in (d) _______. What we have to remember is the importance of good research. In order to get good (e) _______ we must provide enough (f) _______, so I would like to ask for more people and more money. It’s as simple as that. Money and people are the vital resources we need. That’s all.

That (g) _______ what I want to say so can I (h) _______ the main points? (i) _______ I talked about the objectives of the Calypso project. (j) _______ I (k) _______ the problems, essentially the lack of resources and the time difficulties we had. We also had personnel problems. Finally I (l) _______ that during this time, our competitors have introduced new products. In (m) _______ , therefore, it is now extremely important to launch a new Calypso product during the current year. Thank you for listening.

3 Introducing questions and discussion

Make correct phrases by matching the verb on the left to the correct words on the right.
1 conclude _______ a) your views
2 hear _______ b) my talk
3 have time _______ c) some comments
4 make _______ d) a question
5 ask _______ e) for a discussion

Key
1 What makes a good meeting?

Some comments on business meetings:

"Two or more people getting together for a specific business purpose."

"The fewer the merrier."

1 What makes a good meeting? Suggest what you think are the characteristics of a successful meeting.

2 Listen to the recording of Paul Beck, an engineer, talking about the characteristics of successful business meetings. He makes five of the eight points below. Identify the correct order of these points.

There is a written agenda.
Clear objectives – known to everyone.
Respect for the time available / time planning.
Good chair – effective control.
Emotions are kept under control.
Good preparation.
Everyone gets to say what they need to say.
Reaching objectives.
2 Chairing a meeting

"Mr. Skelton, can I go out and play now?"

What do you think the functions of the chairperson are during a meeting?

1 Listen to a recording of a meeting at Hilo Co., a small subsidiary of a multinational company. The meeting is to discuss the decline in profits. Listen once. Say which of the following are given as reasons for the fall.

- Prices are too high. (Yes/No)
- The company has wasted money on research and development. (Yes/No)
- Sales are down. (Yes/No)
- The sales budget is too low. (Yes/No)
- No one likes the Sales Director. (Yes/No)
- The products are old. (Yes/No)

2 Listen again, paying attention to the role of the chair in the discussion. Check (✓) which of the following functions the chair performs at this meeting.

- Thanks people for coming. (✓)
- Prevents interruptions. (✓)
- Starts the meeting on time. (✓)
- Makes people stick to the subject. (✓)
- States the objective. (✓)
- Gives a personal opinion. (✓)
- Refers to the agenda. (✓)
- Summarizes. (✓)
- Changes the agenda. (✓)
- Asks for comments. (✓)
- Talks about a previous meeting. (✓)
- Decides when to have a break. (✓)
- Introduces the first speaker. (✓)
- Closes the meeting. (✓)

3 Suggest phrases which could be used by a chairperson in the following situations in a meeting.

- a) To welcome the participants to a meeting.
- b) To state the objectives of the meeting.
- c) To introduce the agenda.
- d) To introduce the first speaker.
- e) To prevent an interruption.
- f) To thank a speaker for his/her contribution.
- g) To introduce another speaker.
- h) To keep discussion to the relevant issues.
- i) To summarize discussion.
- j) To ask if anyone has anything to add.
- k) To suggest moving to the next topic on the agenda.
- l) To summarize certain actions that must be done following the meeting (for example, do research, write a report, meet again, write a letter, etc.).
- m) To close the meeting.
Practice 1

Work in groups of four. Decide on a chair and have a brief meeting using one of the situations below.
After a few minutes’ preparation, the chair starts the meeting, introduces the agenda, invites the first speaker to make his/her proposal, prevents interruptions, brings in other speakers, summarizes, etc.

Situation 1

Meeting

To identify ways to advertise clothes and lifestyle products to youth markets in Europe.

Time:

Place:

Participants:

Agenda

1. Budget to be decided at a later meeting.
2. Preferred markets: Suggestion: Eurozone, especially France, Germany, Italy and Spain.
3. Advertising media: Lifestyle magazines / television / Internet / sports sponsorship / others? Note: TV advertising is the most expensive.

Situation 2

Meeting

To decide on training needs and how to spend $100,000 on training.

Time:

Place:

Participants:

Agenda

1. Decide priorities: marketing / information technology / languages.
2. Allocate costs.
3. Decide outline program.

3 Establishing the purpose of a meeting

1 Below is an incomplete agenda for a meeting of an Environmental Research Unit. Listen to the recording of the beginning of the meeting. You will hear the opening remarks from the chair, James Rizzo. Note the objectives of the meeting by filling in the blanks in the agenda.

Environmental Research Unit

Quarterly Meeting

May 24 20—

Room A 32, South Side Science Park

Participants: James Rizzo (Chair), Sonia Borrelli, Vince Reublinger, Russell Mendez.

Time: 10:00 End: 12:00

Agenda

1. (a) ____________ present projects
   1.1 Hydroclear
   1.2 PCB reduction

2. (b) ____________

3. (c) ____________
   - government
   - United Nations / World Health Organization
   - Industry

Practice 2

1 In groups, work out a brief agenda, with an appropriate order, for a meeting of the marketing department of Axis Finance Inc., a medium-sized financial services company. Your agenda should include the points listed here:

- review of marketing performance in the current year
- marketing plans for next year
- minutes of previous meeting
- any other business
- new products
- date of next meeting
- personnel changes
- Chair’s opening address
- apologies for absence.
2. In pairs, prepare a brief opening statement by the Chair to introduce the meeting above:
   - think about what the opening statement from the Chair needs to say
   - use your agenda as a guide
   - refer to the Language Checklist
   - practice in pairs.

Role play

Work in groups of four.
Ash & Whitebeam is a manufacturing company. The Board has decided to set up a subcommittee to examine the four problems contained in File cards 20–23.
Your group is that subcommittee and you are meeting to discuss these problems and to make recommendations to the Board. Read through the information on the File cards. Decide in groups who should lead the discussion on each of the four topics. Each group member should prepare his/her introduction. When everyone is ready, begin the meeting. If possible, also choose an overall Chair for the meeting.

TRANSFER

Think about the role play meeting that you have worked on in this unit and your role in it.
Evaluate the meeting by considering the following:
What were the objectives?
What was your role in the meeting?
Did you use any visual supports?
What was the result of the meeting?
How did you feel about this result?
What action or follow-up was agreed?

TRANSFER

If you were the Chair of the meeting, again think about your role. Consider all the above questions but also the following:
What were the objectives?
How long did it take – was this too long or too short?
Were you an effective Chair?
Did you summarize the meeting?
How could you have chaired the meeting better?

TRANSFER

If you know of any meeting that you are going to participate in, think about your preparation for that meeting. What do you need to consider?

6 So, that's completed _________ f) to the next point.
7 Can we set _________ g) all for today.
8 I think that's _________ h) on the agenda.
9 Thanks _________ i) everyone to the meeting.
11 Sorry to interrupt, but ...

AIMS
- The structure of decision making
- Stating and asking for opinion
- Interrupting and handling interruptions

1 The structure of decision making

The meeting?
Yes, a lively exchange of opinions.

1 Read the text on page 104 and answer these questions.
   a) What kind of meetings is the text about?
   b) What structure does the text describe?
   c) What key point is made about communication?

2 Read the text again. Do you agree with:
   a) the first sentence? Give reasons for your answer.
   b) Haynes’ suggestions for the steps involved in decision making?
   c) the view that communication must be a two-way process?
   d) what the writer says about consensus in the final paragraph?
The reason for having a meeting is to make a decision. Information may be given in a presentation followed by questions or discussion, but it is to get a consensus that the meeting has been arranged in the first place. Achieving this in the most time- and cost-effective manner possible is a goal that everyone attending (the meeting) must share.

Marion Haynes (1988) maintains that decision making meetings need to follow a specific structure. The rational decision process includes the following steps:

- study / discuss / analyze the situation
- define the problem
- set an objective
- state imperatives and desirables
- generate alternatives
- establish evaluation criteria
- evaluate alternatives
- choose among alternatives.

One other aspect of decision making is the necessity for participants in the meeting to be aware of one another’s needs and perceptions. If these are not effectively communicated, if there is an insufficient degree of understanding of one another’s requirements, then an acceptable conclusion is unlikely to be reached. There are four essential elements in decision making: awareness, understanding, empathy and perception.

It is only when we accept that communications are a two-way process that any form of communication, including decision making, will become genuinely successful and effective. Decision making is not always an identifiable activity. Frequently the discussion can evolve into a consensus which can be recognized and verbalized by the leader without the need to “put things to the vote.”

3 Find words or phrases in the text which mean the same as the following:
   a) common agreement
   b) economical use of resources
   c) aim
   d) fix a goal
   e) what one must have
   f) what one would like to have
   g) consider other options
   h) way of seeing things
   i) seeing things as others see them
   j) develop
   k) express through speaking.
2 Stating and asking for opinion

1 Quickly suggest as many ways of asking for opinion and stating opinion as you can. Two examples are given here:
   * What do you think about ...? – I think ...
   * Do you have any opinion on ...? – In my experience ...

2 Listen to a recording of directors of a pharmaceuticals company discussing buying new production control equipment. They have to choose between two alternative suppliers, A and B. As you listen, refer to the graph below which shows the market share development of suppliers A and B.

   ![Graph showing market share development of suppliers A and B]

   Comparison of projected market share: Companies A and B

   a) In technical terms, which system is the best?
   b) Which is the cheapest?
   c) Which system seems to be the best choice? Why?

3 Listen again. Identify examples of language used to:
   a) ask for opinion
   b) state opinion.

   Did you think of these in Exercise 1?
Practice 1

Below are a series of topics. Ask colleagues for their views and note if their opinions are weak, strong or neutral. If asked, give your views on the subjects – either quite strongly or fairly weakly.

1. Arms trade
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................

2. Testing cosmetic products on animals
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................

3. Expenditure on space research
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................

4. Exploitation of the rain forests
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................

5. The quality of television broadcasting
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................

6. Nuclear power
Your opinion ........................................
Others’ opinion ....................................
3 Interrupting and handling interruptions

1. Listen to the recording of a discussion in the European sales office of an American sport utility vehicle (SUV) manufacturer, Amass. It concerns the advertising plans for the launch of a new truck, the Amass 4 PLUS. The marketing manager, Matt Haslam, is explaining his ideas. Mark the following statements as True (T) or False (F).

   a) The truck will be sold to professional users of SUVs.   [ ]
   b) It is not going to be used as a mass market SUV.   [ ]
   c) Matt wants to keep the same agency they have always used. [ ]
   d) Matt used his own research to help him make decisions. [ ]
   e) Changing advertising agencies would cost 50% more.   [ ]

2. Listen again. Number the following interrupting phrases in the order in which you hear them.

   a) Yes, but Matt, if I can interrupt you again. We’re talking serious money here.   1
   b) Er, excuse me, Matt, just a moment. That’s a big claim …   2
   c) It’s the most important thing …   3
   d) One moment! Can we start with a few basics?   4
   e) Yes, so, a select, professional market first, then the mass market SUV. 5
   f) But why? CMA have been okay in the past.   6
   g) Let’s just clarify where … who the audience is, what’s the target group … 7
   h) What! Most agencies charge a lot more than CMA.   8
   i) You plan to use our usual agency, CMA?   9

3. a) Discuss the style of the Amass meeting.   10
   b) How does Matt handle the interruptions? Does his approach change at any point during the extract?   11
   c) Did you think the interruptions are appropriate?
4 Interruptions can have different intentions:
   a) In pairs, suggest examples of each of these.
      1. ask for clarification
      2. add opinion
      3. ask for more details
      4. change direction of the discussion
      5. disagree.
   b) Below is part of a discussion between directors of an oil company talking about a fall in sales. In pairs, suggest appropriate interruptions to complete the dialogue.
      a: The fall in sales is mainly due to the recession affecting world markets.
      b: ____________________________________________________________
      a: Well, it's a general fall of around 5% in sales for most product areas. Also, specifically in the oil processing sector, we have much lower sales, mainly because we sold our UK subsidiary, Anglo Oils.
      b: ____________________________________________________________
      a: Well, no, I'd rather not go into that. We discussed that in previous meetings. I'd prefer to talk about future prospects. The outlook is very good right now ...
      b: ____________________________________________________________
      a: I'm very surprised you say that. In fact, sales forecasts are much better now.
         Anyway, let me tell you ...
      b: ____________________________________________________________
      a: New markets? Yes, but can we talk about new markets later? I have some important information on that. But first ...
      b: ____________________________________________________________
      a: Take a break? We've only just started!

5 There are different ways of handling interruptions.
   a) In pairs, suggest one or two appropriate phrases for the following:
      1. promise to come back to a point later
      2. politely disagree with an interruption
      3. say the interruption is not relevant or that time is short
      4. politely accept the interruption and respond to it before continuing
      5. rejecting a suggestion.
   b) Listen to a complete model version of the dialogue in Exercise 4 above. In pairs, match each of the five examples of handling an interruption to one of the ways listed above (1–5).
6 Use the skeleton outline below to recreate the entire dialogue with a partner. Choose alternative interruptions and ways of handling interruptions.

"The fall in sales is mainly due to the recession affecting world markets."

- Interrupt: ask for clarification.
- Polite response. (5% / most product areas / especially oil processing / also due to sale of Anglo, UK subsidiary)
- Interrupt: ask why Anglo was sold.
- Reject interruption: No time / discussed before.
  - Try to move on to future prospects (good).
  - Interrupt: disagree.
  - Respond: you disagree. Forecasts are much better.
  - Interrupt: you want to talk about new markets.
  - Promise to discuss this later. But first ...
  - Interrupt: suggest a break.
  - Reject the idea.

Practice 2

This task is based on a discussion about investment in public transportation. Work in pairs, A and B. Student A should look at File card 13A. Student B should read File card 13B.

Role play

This role play consists of an internal company meeting. It is designed to cover the objectives of this unit and also chairing meetings and leading discussion from Unit 10. Work in groups of between four and six.
INTRODUCTION – FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

You are directors of a food processing company called Adel Passam Inc. (API). The company has been linked with a scandal involving a businessman and property developer called Jordi Cass. It has been revealed that six years ago Cass bought land from the local city authority at 20% of its true market value. He sold the land one year later at a 500% profit. Cass was an adviser to API at the time as a property consultant. The press has suggested that directors of API knew of the scandal, but said nothing because the company and in particular the founder and managing director, Mikel Adela, stood to profit from Cass’s deal. Also Cass was – and still is – a friend of Mikel Adela’s son, Sam Adela, a director of the company. Mikel Adela died a year ago. Another API director, Marta Lucas, is married to the man who was leader of the ruling Democratic People’s Party on the City Council when the land was originally sold to Cass.

SITUATION

The Board of API meets to discuss what action they should take. They are worried that the reputation of the company will be damaged and that its excellent relationship with the local community and its employees will suffer.

In your group, each student should choose a role from the list:

PARTICIPANTS

Sam Adela (Chair)
Jay Worthy (Legal Advisor to API)
Marta Lucas (Director)
Anton Hassim (Director)
Pat Joyce (Director)
Bernie Callam (Accountant)

The Chair of the meeting should look at File card 24. Other participants should look at File cards 25–29.

---

TRANSFER

Summarize your impressions of the Adel Passam meeting you have taken part in. Classify it according to one of the following types:
- decision making meeting
- information giving meeting
- discussion meeting.

How effective was the meeting?
How effective was the Chair?
How could the meeting have been better?

In what ways did the work covered in this unit help with the meeting?

TRANSFER

If you have taken part in a decision making meeting recently – or if the Adel Passam meeting was a decision making meeting – can you identify any clear structure to the decision making process, which was:
- similar to that described by Haynes (see p. 104)
- similar to the DESC model in the Skills Checklist (see p. 111)
- of a different kind? If so, what?

AIMS
- Asking for and giving clarification
- Delaying decisions
- Ending the meeting

1 Asking for and giving clarification

1 Listen to part of a meeting in which Victoria Lenning, a director of an Anglo-American company, is talking to colleagues about a possible site for locating a factory in the Basque Country in northern Spain. She is explaining the historical background to industry in the region. Listen once and identify the following:
   a) two historically important industries in the region
   b) the status of these industries now.

2 Victoria is twice interrupted by requests for clarification. Listen to the extract again and follow the structure for the first part of the exchange. Then write in the phrases used for the same functions in the second part.

Victoria Lenning
The main industries were ... (states idea or opinion)

Yes, of course. In fact ...
(clarifies information)

So ... is that clear?
(checks that everything is now clear)

Now, to get back ...

Other participants
Er, sorry, can I ask something?
(request for clarification)

Yes, thanks.
(confirmaton)

Extract 2

a: Every new product needs a USP.

b: __________________________ USP?

a: Unique Selling Proposition.

b: Er, can you ____________ what that is?

a: USP ____________ the special characteristics of a product which make it different and desirable – so consumers will want it. Er, ____________ that ____________ now?

b: Yes ______________________. Thank you.

Now listen to a recording of these dialogues.

2 Delaying decisions

Listen to another extract from the meeting about a possible site for locating a factory in the Basque Country. The speaker, Victoria Lenning, is giving more details about the infrastructure of the region.

1 Listen once. Choose the correct answer from the alternatives given.

a) Infrastructure for the region is:
mostly good excellent not very good

b) The main improvements in infrastructure are in:
Vitoria in the south
Bilbao
San Sebastian

c) Between these cities there is:
a complex road system
a fast train link an airport

d) The airport in Bilbao has been:
rebuilt closed down

complete the phrases, all of which suggest that a decision needs to be delayed, or more time is needed.

VICTORIA: (a) Well, let's not ___________________. I think it would be a bad idea to assume we're going to choose a city. (b) It ____________ _______ to think about one of the smaller towns.
FRED: ... smaller places, yes. So, should we get details on these possible places?
VICTORIA: (c) We could do that, but we _____, I think, ________________ a few things. For example, tax benefits, grants and anything like that — for locating to a smaller place, not one of the main cities. Then we could make a better decision.
JOHN: (d) Yes, I agree, but also, _________________. (pause) Er ... you've talked

Now listen to the recording again and compare your answers.

Practice 2

You are at an internal meeting to discuss increases in the price of your products. With a partner, use these cues to make a dialogue. Try to use new language from this unit.

Participant A
- Ask if the meeting can reach a decision on this.
- Ask for clarification.
- Suggest doing market research.
- Suggest first looking at previous experience of price increases — then later going to a Market Research Firm.
- Ask for general agreement. Move to next item for discussion.

Participant B
- Respond that we need more information.
- Say we need to know more about the effects of a price increase.
- Agree. Suggest contacting Hamid (a friend) who knows about market research firms.

Now listen to a recording of a model dialogue.
3 Ending the meeting

1 Read the following text and identify:
   a) three recommendations on how a meeting should end
   b) what should happen after a meeting.

Regardless of the type of meeting (information or decision making), it is important to close with a restatement of objective, a summary of what was accomplished, and a list of agreed action that needs to be taken.

After the meeting, it is essential to follow up with action. A brief memorandum of conclusions should be written and distributed. Inform appropriate people who did not attend the meeting about essential decisions made.

Finally, each meeting should be viewed as a learning experience. Future meetings should be improved by soliciting evaluations and deciding what action is required to conduct better meetings.

2 a) You are going to hear a recording of the end of the meeting about a possible decision to locate a factory in the Basque Country. Before listening, briefly discuss what you have already heard from this meeting. Then suggest what the end of the meeting will include.

b) Now listen to the recording. Choose which of the following, A, B or C, is the best summary of the meeting.

A The meeting agreed to locate a new plant in the Basque Country in Spain as infrastructure is very good.

B Concerning possible location of a plant in the Basque Country in Spain, infrastructure is good, but more work is required on financial implications of choosing a city or a small town location.

C Discussion of possible location of a plant in the Basque Country, good infrastructure, no decision yet on where to locate new plant.

3 Think about the recording you have just heard. Do you think this ending follows the rules suggested by Haynes above? Suggest ways that this ending could be improved.
Practice 3

In pairs use the outline below to create a Chair’s closing remarks for a meeting. To make this more realistic, add names and other details as required. Practice your closing remarks together.

- Indicate that the meeting is almost over.
- Check that no one has anything else to say.
- Restate the purpose of the meeting.
- Introduce a summary of the decisions taken.
- Ask if everyone is happy with your summary.
- Indicate that (a colleague) will organize a presentation next week.
- Set a date for a new meeting.
- Thank people for coming.

Now listen to a recording of model closing remarks.

Practice 4

Work in groups of four. Each group should choose one of the following situations. Groups should prepare closing remarks, including a summary based on one of the sets of notes presented here. Be sure to mention any follow-up action that needs to be taken. After five minutes’ preparation, form fresh groups so that everyone presents his/her closing remarks to students who have worked on a different set of notes. The Chairs of four different meetings made these notes during discussions:
New training courses for telemarketing staff
- Allow $40,000 budget
- Peter to identify three possible training companies
- Next meeting: March 14th 2 p.m.

Merger of Atlas North with Dransfield
- No decision taken
- More financial info. needed
- Depends on local markets
- Detroit subsidiary to present report in 3 months
- Meeting in L.A. December

Hospital Management Committee
- Purchase of new Ultrasound Scanner for Intensive Care Unit (ICU)
- Commission report on alternatives
- Redirect funds from Radiology Unit
- Decision by March at the latest
- Joan to find out views of affected staff
- No meeting set

Lawsuit against company for wrongful dismissal of Jane Kee
- Accept blame
- Offer compensation of $50,000
- Personnel Dept. to produce confidential internal report on new guidelines for employees' contracts
- Three weeks to complete report
Role play

This role play is an opportunity to cover work from the entire Meetings module, including this unit. During preparation, look again at the Skills and Language Checklists for all three Meetings units.

SOLA Holidays

Take a family break in any one of our 200 Sola Hotels and have a FREE once in a lifetime balloon trip!!!

Any family booking a Sola Holiday weekend getaway (two nights, meals included) will qualify for a trip in a hot air balloon – normally worth over $300!!! Sola Holidays will send you an application form for your balloon trip. All you have to do is visit your local travel agents and book a Sola Hotel weekend getaway for any time between now and the end of December, or fill out the coupon below!

Please send me further details on the Sola Holidays Balloon Offer.

Name:

Address:

Daytime telephone number:

Send to:
Sola Holidays Balloon Offer, PO Box 1090, Miami, FL

Don’t delay! No need to use a stamp! We’ll pay the postage
Work in groups of three or four. Read the flyer for Sola Holidays on page 119, then decide on your roles from the alternatives given. Study your File card information, the background information below and the agenda which follows. Spend ten minutes preparing for the meeting.

Decide who has which role:

Jan Lubitsch (Managing Director and Chair).
See File card 30.
Andrew / Andrea Eastman (Marketing Director).
See File card 31.
Fred / Freda Cavani (Director).
See File card 32.
Eric / Erica Whitehead (Director).
See File card 33.

Background

Sola Holidays is a resort company specializing in short domestic vacations (not abroad). The company owns a string of luxury hotels. Sola ran a summer promotion in which any family booking a weekend vacation getaway in a Sola Hotel automatically qualified for a free balloon trip. (See the promotional brochure on page 119.) The balloon trips normally cost around $300 and Sola had an arrangement with a balloon company, Blue Balloon, to buy 1,000 trips at $125. Unfortunately, the promotion was incredibly successful and instead of the forecast 1,000 balloon trips, over 4,000 customers applied and qualified for their free trips.

Here is the agenda for the meeting:

SOLA Holidays

Memo: To Marketing

Meeting: Wednesday June 25th 20 — 10.00 a.m. — 11.00 a.m.

Place: Sola Holidays Head Office

Participants: JL, AE, FC, EW

AGENDA

1. Report on Promotion for Sola Weekend Getaways
2. Insurance position
3. Action required
4. Any other business

TRANSFER

Evaluate the Sola Holidays meeting and in particular how it ended. Consider what you have learned from this unit and how it links in with the rest of the module. Reflect on what you have learned from the entire Meetings module. Identify areas where you think you have made progress and where you think more improvement is needed.
Language Checklist

Ending the meeting

Asking for clarification
Could you be more specific?
Can you explain that (in more detail)?
What do you mean by ... ?

Clarifying
This means ...
What I mean is ...
What I want to say is ...
To explain this in more detail ...

Checking that the clarification is sufficient
Is that okay? / Is that clearer now?

Referring to other speakers
As Peter has already told us ...
I'm sure Mr. Kowalski knows about this ...
Later we'll hear a report from Neil on ...
Professor Gilberto is certainly aware of ...

Delaying decisions
I think we need more time to consider this.
I think we should postpone a decision ...
Can we leave this until another date?
It would be wrong to make a final decision ...

Skills Checklist

Ending meetings

Two general rules
Meeting should end on time!
Decision making meetings should end with decisions!

The Chair should close the meeting with:
  - a restatement of the objectives
  - a summary of decisions taken
  - a summary of the action now required
  - reference to any individual responsibilities.

After the meeting
- A memorandum should be sent to all participants summarizing the decisions taken and the action required.
- The memorandum should be sent to any interested individuals who were unable to attend.
- The Chair should seek feedback on the meetings to try to improve future meetings.

Improving meetings

Motivation to change
Gather information on present situation
Identify specific areas needing improvement
Identify alternative courses of action
Practice new techniques Improvement model.

6 We look forward to hearing ______ h ______ f) another meeting soon?
7 Is everyone ______ i ______ g) all for today.
8 So I think the meeting ______ j ______ h) have anything else to say?
9 That's ______ k ______ i) you again next week.
NEGOTIATIONS

MODULE 5
13 Know what you want

AIMS
- Types of negotiation
- Making an opening statement
- Preparation for a negotiation

1 Types of negotiation

What do you understand by the term “negotiation”? In pairs, figure out a short definition.

1 Listen to the recording of a conversation between two friends. Identify:
   a) the first suggestion
   b) the counter suggestion
   c) the agreement.

2 Here is a representation of the typical structure of a negotiation. Compare this with the conversation you have just listened to.

   Suggestion  ─── Counter suggestion Agreement   ─── Confirmation

In pairs, suggest a short business conversation with the above structure.
3 a) Listen to a recording of three extracts, each part of a different type of negotiation. Match each one to the correct picture, A, B or C.

b) Listen again. Match each negotiation to one of the three types described below, X, Y or Z.

X – A business negotiation is similar to a discussion between friends arranging a social engagement. Two parties have a shared objective: to work together in a way which is mutually beneficial. Proposals and counter proposals are discussed until agreement is reached. Both sides hope for repeat business. This is an agreement-based negotiation, sometimes referred to as a win-win negotiation.

Y – Two other types of negotiation are less founded on mutual benefit, but on gaining the best deal possible for your side. In the first type, both teams negotiate to independent advantage. This means that each team thinks only about its own interests. In this type, a seller typically seeks to sell a product but is less concerned about repeat business.

Z – A third type is the negotiation to resolve conflict, for example in a contractual dispute. Here, it is possible that each party regards the other as an opponent and seeks to win the argument. This is a win-lose negotiation.

Discussion

Suggest other situations which match each of the three types of negotiations described here. Think of examples from your own experience.

2 Preparation for a negotiation

What considerations are important in preparing to negotiate? In pairs, suggest as many as you can.

1 Listen to the recording in which a Management Communications Consultant, Diana Ferry, talks about preparing for a negotiation. Mark the seven points below in the order in which she mentions them. The first is already marked as an example.

Identify your minimum requirements.
Prepare your opening statement.
Decide what concessions you could make.
Know your own strengths and weaknesses.
Know your role as part of a team.
Prepare your negotiating position – know your aims and objectives.
Prepare any figures, any calculations and any support materials you may need.
2 Match each of the four aspects of good preparation on the left with why they are important on the right. If in doubt, check your answer by listening again to the recording.

a) Knowing your aims and objectives
b) Knowing your own strengths and weaknesses
c) Preparing any figures, calculations and other materials
d) Preparing an opening statement
i) means you can support your argument.
ii) helps clear thinking and purpose.
iii) creates reasonable expectations.
iv) helps you to know the market, the context in which you want to work.

Practice 1

1 Look at the cartoon and think about these questions.
   • How could the negotiation have been more successful?
   • How would a sales representative need to prepare for a meeting in which he/she planned to ask for a raise?
   • What would the sales manager need to think about?

2 Divide into two groups, A and B. Read the notes for A or B below. In groups prepare a negotiation position. Then choose a partner from the other group to negotiate with. Try to reach a better solution than the one in the cartoon above.

Group A
You are sales managers in a large automotive components manufacturer. You are having a meeting with the leader of your team of sales representatives to negotiate new contracts. Sales have not increased in the past year and so you do not want to increase either the reps' pay or their commissions.

Group B
You are the leader of a team of sales representatives. Your pay and commission have not increased for three years. You have a meeting with your sales manager to try to renegotiate your contracts.

When you have finished, report the results of your negotiation.
3 Making an opening statement

Most formal negotiations begin with an opening statement from each side. What do you think an opening statement should include?

1 Listen to a recording of part of a meeting between a small Singaporean software company called LP Associates and a possible partner, Kee Ltd., in a joint venture. You will hear part of an opening statement from Stella Wang, the Production Manager at LP Associates. Check (✓) four of the eight statements below which best represent what she says.

- LP Associates wants to reach a final agreement in this negotiation.
- These are preliminary talks.
- The two parties want to resolve a conflict.
- They want to agree on a name for the joint venture.
- LP Associates would like to consider joint product development.
- They would also consider license agreements.
- LP Associates wants to agree to a complete sale of their ideas.
- They want to consider working on a consultancy basis.

2 Listen again. Complete the following phrases from Stella's opening statement.

a) Well, thank you __________ __________ __________ __________.

b) May I begin by __________ __________ __________ __________ ...

c) First of all, we see it very much as a first meeting, a __________ __________ to __________ __________ in which we can perhaps ...

d) There are two, possibly three, ways in which we __________ __________ __________ __________.

e) I'd like to __________ these under three headings.

3 Compare Stella Wang's opening statement with the suggestions you made at the beginning of this section.
What did she include that you also suggested? What other things did she include?

Practice 2

1 Suggest phrases for each of the following at the beginning of a negotiation.
   a) Welcome the other side.
   b) Develop small talk (trip, weather).
   c) Mention plans for lunch – make your visitors feel welcome (see city center / local restaurant).
   d) Suggest you start talking about the main subject of your meeting.
   e) Introduce a colleague (Luke Fox, Marketing Department).
   f) Explain general aim or purpose of the meeting (preliminary / exploratory).
   g) Say what your side wants from the meeting. (Establish beginnings of a partnership/learn about supply systems / price variations and supply costs.)

2 Try to bring all the phrases above together in a single opening statement.
Practice 3
Choose one of the following two situations to prepare an opening statement in a negotiation.

Remember to include welcoming remarks and some general comments on your expectations for a successful meeting and an agreement which leads to a lasting partnership.

Situation 1
Your company, Ultra Compo, is meeting representatives of OHTA Inc. from Tokyo. OHTA Inc. wants to set up an office in your country to distribute its electronic components.

Objective
Exploratory talks to:
  i) know more about the products
  ii) find out about OHTA’s existing international distribution network
  iii) discuss in general the terms under which the two companies could cooperate.

Independent objective: to internationalize your own company’s activities and extend your product range.

Situation 2
You are interested in buying some land in a suburb of Lima, Peru, where you want to establish a distribution warehouse to serve the Andean Region of South America. You have a meeting with the lawyers acting for the landowner, Puertos Callao S.A., a port authority in Lima.

Objective
Exploratory talks to find out:
  i) more about the land, its exact location relative to the port, airport, city center, etc.
  ii) the cost of the land
  iii) the present condition of the land – existing buildings, etc.

Independent objective: to secure the land on the lowest possible terms, either by buying it now for cash, or getting a deal spreading costs over a longer term at low interest, or to lease the land.
Role play

This role play has three parts: to prepare for a negotiation; to prepare an opening statement; to make an opening statement.

You will work in teams. Everyone should contribute to the first two parts and agree on one or two people to actually present the opening statement prepared by the group.

Divide into teams of up to four people, Team(s) A and Team(s) B.

In your preparation, you will need to think about how to establish a good working relationship with the other side from the very start.

Team A should look at File card 14A. You are representatives of Coen Brothers, manufacturers of prefabricated industrial buildings.

Team B should look at File card 14B. You are representatives of Fratelli Taviani, an Italian animal feed manufacturer.

TRANSFER

Either think of any kind of negotiation that you may be involved in at work with colleagues, with your boss, or with another company.

- How do you need to prepare for the negotiation?
- What is your objective in the negotiation?
- Assuming you will not get everything you want, what is your best realistic alternative?
- What is the level at which you could realistically settle?

Or consider a negotiating situation in your private life, for example in negotiating with your bank or with a company trying to sell you a major consumer item, such as a car, a vacation, a house, furniture, etc. Consider the same four questions as above.

• be brief
Quick Communication Check

1 Negotiations vocabulary

Match the word to the correct definition.

1 agenda ______ a) a legal document that gives details of an agreement
2 compromise ______ b) meeting between at least two parties that aims to reach an agreement
3 proposal ______ c) plan for the meeting or negotiation
4 priorities ______ d) information used to help make your point in a negotiation or meeting
5 contract ______ e) agreement that is between the starting positions of both sides
6 evidence ______ f) most important needs or demands
7 negotiation ______ g) position (maybe a final one) that both sides accept 8 agreement ______ h) offer

2 Preparing for a negotiation

1 Not all negotiations (or meetings) have a formal a_________.
2 You should know your s________. and w_________.
3 Establish your o_________.
4 Have all the i_________ you need.
5 Prepare any v________. supports.
6 Prepare an o_________ s_________.

3 About the opening statement

Mark the following statements as True (T) or False (F).

1 Everyone present should make an opening statement. ________
2 The opening statement explains the purpose of the meeting. ________
3 It is a good idea to make positive comments about the other side in the negotiation. ________
4 In most situations it is best to try to work with and not against the other side. ________
5 Both sides usually make an opening statement. ________
6 It helps to try to understand the other side's point of view. ________
7 The opening statement explains your minimum requirement from the negotiation. ________
1 Bargaining and making concessions

A key principle in negotiating is to give a little and get a little at the same time.

If you give us 5%
we'll pay in 60 days...
and if transport is free...
...we can pay half the insurance.
If you can agree to all that...
It's a deal!

We think 2% is enough... but you can have 90 days credit...
no... if you pay for transport
...we'll look after the insurance.
If you accept that...
It's a deal!
1 Read the following extract. According to the writer, are these statements about negotiating True (T) or False (F):

a) Decide on the most important and less important issues.
T

b) Try to guess what the other side thinks.
F

c) Note answers to the questions you ask.
F

d) Deal with issues in isolation, one at a time.
F

e) Make concessions and get a concession in return.
F

f) Tough bargaining can combine with a spirit of cooperation.
F

g) If there are problems, you have to accept or reject what is being offered.
F

Effective negotiating requires clear thinking and a constructive approach

It is necessary to have a clear understanding of what for you are the most important issues and at the same time what for you are less important. Try to identify aspects in the second category where the other side will be very happy to gain concessions. Give what is not so important for you, but is valuable for the other side.

To do this, you have to do the following:

- Check every item of what the other side wants. Ask how important items are and look for flexibility.
- Do not guess their opinions or motives – you could be wrong, or they won’t like your speculation.
- Note the other side’s answers, but don’t immediately say what you think.
- Avoid being forced into considering one issue alone, consider two or three at once – aim for an agreement to a package.

If there are big differences between the two parties, you have a choice of these options: to accept, to reject, or to continue negotiating. If you decide to continue, then the options in the next round are:

- to make a new offer
- to seek a new offer from the other party
- to change the shape of the deal (vary the quantity or the quality, or bring in third parties)
- begin bargaining.

Your bargaining should be governed by three principles: be prepared, think about the whole package, and be constructive. In preparing, you must identify the issues, and prepare your bargaining position. You need:

- an essential conditions list – issues where you cannot concede anything
- a concessions list – issues where you can make concessions
- to grade the concessions from the easiest to the most difficult, where you need most in return.

As for the package, you must look for agreement in principle on a broad front. When the time comes for compromise, each party will concede on one issue if they win a concession on another.

The final principle is to be positive and constructive. You should be fair and cooperative, even during difficult bargaining. This approach is most likely to move the negotiation towards a settlement that both sides feel is to their advantage.

Adapted from "Negotiating," by Bill Scott. Gower Handbook of Management (London: Gower Publishing Ltd., 1988).
2 Read the text again. Identify the following:
   a) how to respond to what the other side wants
   b) three ways to change a deal
   c) three actions to prepare for bargaining.

3 Listen to a recording of part of a negotiation between Arco, a manufacturing company, and a research company called Central Auto Systems, CAS.
   Twelve months ago Arco and CAS agreed to a joint development program to manufacture an engine designed by CAS. However, Arco has recently gone through a major restructuring of its activities. The company has decided not to proceed with the joint venture for the new engine.
   The negotiation is about ending the joint venture and agreeing to compensation for CAS. In the extract, you hear Joe Blassini and Chris Pass of Arco talking to Elaine Chan of CAS. Listen once and mark the following as True (T) or False (F):
   a) The reversal of rights is linked to the compensation agreement.
   b) Joe Blassini thinks Arco's work on the fuel system must be considered.
   c) It will be difficult for CAS to find a new partner.

4 Listen again. Identify examples of language used to link agreement on one issue to agreement on a different issue. Complete the blanks in the sentences below:
   a) We want compensation to ________ our work ________ ________.
   b) Yes, we ________ ________ to that, ________ ________ ________ we can accept your compensation demands.
   c) So, we need to ________ the question of rights to compensation.
   d) The problem is that ________ ________ revert all rights, we ________ ________ keep the compensation within ________ ________.

Practice 1

Make sentences which include concessions based on the cues below. The first is done for you as an example.
   a) a better warranty / quicker payment terms
      We could offer a better warranty if you would agree to quicker payment terms.
   b) free delivery / larger order
   c) free on-site training / small increase in price
   d) 5% discount / payment on delivery
   e) extra $50,000 compensation / agreement not to file a lawsuit
   f) promise to improve safety for staff / agreement on new contracts
   g) better working conditions / shorter breaks
Practice 2

Work with a partner. Choose an item that one of you owns and the other would like to buy, for example, a house or car. Work separately to prepare a negotiation based on the sale of the item you choose.

Decide on various bargaining points, including price, extra benefits, guarantees, payment terms, delivery time, part exchange of other item(s), etc.

After brief preparation, begin your negotiation, each making an opening statement before beginning bargaining over the details of the agreement.

Note: You must reach agreement!

2 Accepting and confirming

An essential requirement in negotiating is to be absolutely clear what the other party is proposing and to state clearly what is being agreed. Inevitably, this involves a degree of repetition and paraphrasing. In the recording you are going to hear there are examples of this kind of repetition.

1 Before listening to another part of the negotiation between Arco and CAS, recap what was being discussed in the first extract.

In this next extract, Joe Blassini and Chris Pass of Arco and Elaine Chan of CAS are discussing compensation to CAS, and a royalty payment to Arco on future production of the engine. Identify:

a) why compensation is important to CAS
b) the final agreement reached.

2 Listen again. As you listen, write in the missing words.

a) CAS accepting the principle of a royalty:

We ________ ________ ________ a royalty, because once we’re paying a royalty we’ve got an income to support it.

b) Arco insisting on a 10% royalty and agreeing to payment of two years’ compensation:

Well, ________ ________ ________ ________ ________ a 10% royalty, ________ ________ that – the two years’ compensation.

c) CAS accepting this:

Okay, in principle ________ ________ ________ ________ 10% – ________ ________ compensation based on two years’ projected sales.

d) Arco confirming what the parties have agreed:

Yes, okay. So, confirmation, to ________ ________ ________ ________ we are agreeing … we agree to a two year sales forecast compensation.
Practice 3

You and a partner are representatives of Beck Instruments and Ojanpera Inc., a machine tool maker. Ojanpera is in discussion with Beck Instruments to buy a machine, the BI25. Use the flow chart below to negotiate some aspects of an agreement for the sale of the BI25.

Ojanpera
- Offer to buy the machine if BI can give you a good price.
- Ask for a discount.
- Agree, if the discount is attractive.
- Ask for 6%.
- Agree.

Beck Instruments
- Say that your prices are very competitive.
- Say a discount could be possible if Ojanpera agrees to pay for shipping costs.
- Offer 4% discount.
- Unfortunately, you can't agree, unless Ojanpera pays for the installation.
- Confirm your agreement.

Now listen to a recording of a model dialogue.
3 Summarizing and looking ahead

1 Listen to a recording of discussions towards the end of a negotiation between Jill Kearne from Gibson Trust Ltd., a real estate developer, and Neil Finch, a government official responsible for the sale of a former railroad station.

a) Complete the labeling of the plan of the area involved in the negotiation.

b) What is not included in the sale?

c) What will happen on May 15 and in September?

2 Listen again.

a) How does Jill Kearne introduce what she wants to say? Complete the following:

Well, ________ ________ ________ ________ – go over the ________ ________ ________ ________ on. Is that okay?

... Well, ________ ________ ________ is ...

b) How would you describe the atmosphere in this negotiation?
3. The following letter is from Gibson Trust to the Department of Urban Development summarizing the points agreed to in the negotiation between them and outlining the next steps. Fill in the blanks in the letter with appropriate words from the box.

May 2, 20—

Dear Neil,

Re: Meeting in Campden, April 30—“Railroad Land Sale”

I am writing to (a) ________ points (b) ________ to in the above meeting, held to discuss the sale of government-owned railroad land to Gibson Trust.

We would like to confirm through this letter and the (c) ________ drawings that the property (d) ________ in the above sale consists of the land presently occupied by the station buildings and also the former parking lots east of the station, the offices to the west and the warehouses alongside the tracks. The government-owned housing on the north side of the railway lines is (e) ________.

We also agree that the station will be renovated by the Transportation Department and that the government will be responsible for running an eventual museum and paying a rent of $200,000 per year to Gibson Trust. The remaining land will be (f) ________ by Gibson Trust and later sold off separately. The development is intended to be for commercial and residential use. The eventual use of the land should be (g) ________ in the contract.

Our next meeting will be on May 15 at 10 a.m., at which development plans will be (h) _________. Soon after this, contracts will be (i) _________. Then we will need time to consider the contracts but hopefully they will be (j) ________ by the end of September.

Do contact us if you have any comments or alterations you would like to make to this summary. Thank you once again for a very constructive meeting and we look forward to seeing you again on May 15.

Yours sincerely,

Jill G. Kearne

Practice 4

Imagine you are a participant in a subsequent meeting between Gibson Trust and government officials responsible for the sale of the former railroad station. You have made the following notes during your meeting. Use them to summarize and conclude your meeting, looking ahead to future steps.

1. Station Renovation and Use
   * approve plans to renovate station as a museum-link to local City Museum
   * Museum-operated by government / all year round
   * Gift shop
   * Study Center-supported by University and City Library

2. Other Land to be developed by Gibson Trust / agreed commercial 50% and residential 50% - specified in the contract

Next steps: finish contracts
Next meeting: exchange contracts - June 25

Now listen to a recording of a model summary.

Role play

Conduct a negotiation, involving bargaining and making concessions and accepting and confirming. Work in pairs, A and B. With your partner, choose one of the following topics:
   a) negotiating advertising space at soccer matches
   b) negotiating purchase of a luxury apartment in Tokyo's Shinjuku district.
If you choose the first topic, look at File cards 15A and 15B.
If you choose the second topic, look at File cards 16A and 16B.
When you have finished one role play, either switch roles and repeat the exercise using the same topic, or change A and B and do the other topic. This way, both parties in the pair can practice buying and selling.
See who gets the best deal.

TRANSFER

Think of a negotiation you were recently involved in. What kind of negotiation was it? How do you think it went?
Did you keep to the Concession rules included in the Skills Checklist on page 140?
If you had the negotiation again, would you do things differently?

Negotiations (2) – Bargaining in negotiations

Concession rules
“A key principle in negotiating is to give a little and get a little at the same time.”
• Ask for concessions
• All concessions are conditional
• Conditions first “If … then … ”
• “It’s a package”
• Give what’s cheap to you and valuable to them.

During the negotiation

Main speaker
• Create a joint, public and flexible agenda.
• Question needs and preferences.
• Don’t talk too much.
• Listen.
• Don’t fill silences.
• Build on common ground.
• Explore alternatives “What if … ?”
• Be clear, brief and firm.
• Follow concession rules.

Support speaker
• Wait till the Chair or your main speaker brings you in.
• Be clear, brief and firm.
• Follow the concession rules.
• Support your main speaker
  – Agree (nod, “That’s right … ”)
  – Emphasize (“This point is very important”) – Add forgotten points (“And we must remember … ”)
  – But don’t make concessions for your main speaker.
  – Listen.
  – Don’t fill silences.
Quick Communication Check

1 Bargaining and making concessions

Choose the right alternative from the words in italics.
1 It's okay with us so long as / whereas you can supply the goods by January.
2 If / Unless the specifications are right we'll be happy.
3 We won't pay that price if / unless you increase the quantity.
4 If you ask us to help you then we'll / we do send someone immediately.
5 If you pay in dollars we had to / will have to pay bank charges.
6 We can offer a discount but only / however if you pay at the time of the order.
7 We can reach agreement unless / on the condition that the price is fixed for two years.

2 Accepting and confirming

A Match the word on the left to the correct meaning on the right.
1 agree with someone a) tie to 2 check (v) b) all right
3 link (v) c) problem
4 issue d) formal written agreement
5 acceptable e) accept what someone says

- Types of negotiator
- Rejecting
- Dealing with conflict
- Ending the negotiation

1 Types of negotiator

The delicate art of negotiation

Try to remember the three different types of negotiation described in Unit 13. We may also speak about three types of negotiator: the fighter, the creative negotiator and the one who looks for independent advantage (see the Skills Checklist for this unit).

To find out which one you are, answer the following questions and check your answers with the key at the end.
What type of negotiator are you?

1. Your aim in a negotiation is ...
   a) to find the greatest area of agreement in the joint interests of both parties.
   b) to win and to make the other side lose.
   c) to find the best deal for your side.

2. When the other side is talking you ...
   a) use the information you are hearing to identify weaknesses in the other party.
   b) plan what you are going to say next.
   c) listen with maximum attention.

3. You think that ...
   a) part of the available time must be spent socializing and getting to know the other side.
   b) goodwill is important but the speed of the meeting should be quick and businesslike.
   c) the meeting should get down to business as soon as possible and reach quick decisions.

4. When you speak in a negotiation you ...
   a) make bold and forceful statements, possibly banging on the table.
   b) make carefully considered statements in a calm, controlled voice.
   c) are occasionally forceful and inflexible.

5. If the other side disagrees with you, you ...
   a) try hard to find a creative position by modifying your position.
   b) repeat your demands and will not concede – your objective is to make the other side give in.
   c) reshape your offer without fundamental changes.

6. If the other side states an opinion you disagree with, you ...
   a) tentatively suggest an alternative.
   b) ask for clarification and explanation.
   c) ridicule it with sarcasm.

To see which kind of negotiator you are, calculate your total based on the following:

If you score 1 or more you are a creative negotiator 11-14 you negotiate to Independent advantage 7-10 you are a negotiator less than you should get a gun licence!

2 Dealing with conflict

What causes conflict in a negotiation?

1 Read the text below. How many ways are suggested to reduce conflict in a negotiation?

2 Match each of the following to a phrase in the text with a similar meaning:
   a) highlight the disadvantages of failing to reach a deal
   b) think of new benefits for both sides
   c) alter parts of what is being offered
   d) take a break to consider positions
   e) have the negotiation in a different place
   f) change the individuals involved
   g) ask an independent person to come and help you reach agreement
   h) have an informal meeting to talk things over.

Conflict may sometimes be an unavoidable step on the road towards agreement. However, in some cases conflict leads to the breakdown of negotiations as one or both sides realize that agreement is not possible. In many cases this is better than agreeing to something which would be against the interests of the people concerned.

When conflict arises, there are several possible actions which may help to resolve conflict in a negotiation:

- leave the problem, go on to a different topic and return later to the point at issue
- summarize progress and areas of agreement
- emphasize the benefits available to both sides
- emphasize the loss to both sides of not reaching agreement
- restate the issue and wait for a response
- change the package
- invent new options for mutual gain
- offer conditional concessions
- adjourn to think and reflect
- set up an off-the-record meeting
- change location
- change negotiator (personal chemistry?)
- bring in a third party (mediator?)
- consider walking away.

Adapted from The Pocket Negotiator published by Gottschalk Hartley-Brewer (1989).
3 Listen to a recording of five different statements. All of these are ways of dealing with conflict. Match each statement with one of the following strategies.

a) Adjourn to think and reflect. □
b) Summarize progress and areas of agreement. □
c) Leave the problem, discuss something else, come back later to the problem. □
d) emphasize the loss to both sides of not reaching agreement. □
e) Offer a conditional concession. □

4 In pairs, use the given cues to suggest a response to the statements.

Situation 1
The problem is that we have never offered the kind of warranty you are looking for.

Suggest leaving the point and returning to it later after discussing other issues, i.e. training for technical staff.

Situation 2
There's a number of issues on the table. We seem to be a long way from an agreement.

Suggest changing the package being offered (variables include price, shipment costs, payment terms).

Situation 3
The price you are asking is rather high, quite a lot higher than we were expecting.

Send a signal that you could offer better payment terms.

Situation 4
There are several problems. We think there is quite a lot of negotiation ahead before we can agree on a common strategy.

Suggest advantages of reaching agreement: more global influence, better prospects for the future.

Now listen to a recording of model answers.

Practice 1

A year ago an advertising consultancy, SAR Services, agreed to design and run a twelve-week magazine advertising campaign for KPack Inc. using specialist journals.

KPack is not happy with the campaign. The first advertisements were a month late, missing two important trade fairs. The advertisements did not appear in two key industry journals. Now KPack is refusing to pay the whole fee for the campaign.

Construct part of the dialogue using the flow chart below.
Now listen to a recording of a model dialogue.

3 Rejecting

The good news is... We think your products are the cheapest on the market. The bad news is... we also think they are garbage.
1 Group Image, a commercial photographic company, is planning to buy new processing equipment. For two days they have been negotiating with Photolab Inc., a supplier of photographic processing equipment. Photolab has made an offer.

Listen to a recording of a final summing up from Peter Cawood of Photolab Inc. and three alternative responses from Group Image.
• Comment on each response.
• Decide which is the most appropriate.
• Give reasons for your decision.

2 Complete the following phrases with suitable words. If in doubt, listen again to the last two responses in Exercise 1 above.
   a) Thank you for your proposals, but ________ very ________.
   b) We do not ________ at this stage to ________ your offer.
   c) Obviously, we have ________ it very carefully.
   d) We are not entirely ________ that the technical advantages ________ the high cost.
   e) We hope you'll ________ us again with future offers.
   f) I think we are ________ to give you a formal ________ today, but we will ________ to you and tell you of our ________ in a day or two. Then we'll ________ what the next step should be. So, thank you very much.

3 Match a phrase on the left with a phrase on the right which could be used in a similar situation.
   a) Not just now.  I'm afraid not.
   b) Not really.  Not at the moment.
   c) I don't think so.  I'm afraid we just couldn't do that.
   d) I'm sorry but that's not realistic.  I doubt it.

Practice 2

Below are four offers or requests. Reject each one, using the information in the cues.

Situation 1
Let me make a suggestion. If you agree to buy 100 units every month for the next twelve months, we'll agree to a 10% discount.
You don't know how many units you will need in six and twelve months. It might be more or less.

Situation 2
The price we are offering excludes installation costs but does include a twelve month warranty.
Other suppliers offer free installation and a two year parts and labor warranty.
Situation 3
I think the absolute minimum investment in advertising must be $40,000, otherwise we cannot reach enough of our market. It’s not much to ask for.
You cannot spend more than your budget.

Situation 4
Now, some excellent news: we’d like to increase our order. Right now you are sending us 350 boxes a month. We need at least 500, demand is very high …
Your order books are full, the plant is working at capacity.

Now listen to a recording of model answers.

Practice 3
Abacus Inc. is an automobile parts distributor. They want to buy exhaust pipes from a manufacturer, Kroll.

Abacus Inc.
Ask for 200 exhaust pipes — part number DR5789032.
Immediately.
Ask for 10% discount.
Ask for unit price.
Offer $95.
Refuse.
Refuse.
Ask for 3.5% with 60 days to pay.
Comment.

Kroll
No problem! Ask when they are needed.
Refuse.
Refuse.
$100.
Refuse.
Say margins are very tight.

Your prices are very competitive.
Say goodbye.

Now listen to a recording of a model dialogue.
4 Ending the negotiation

1 The words below offer a clear indication of the result of a negotiation. Work with a partner and decide which of these words would indicate a positive outcome and which a negative outcome.

unfortunately  another time  no agreement not ready      fruitful partnership  problems very good      satisfactory        sorry        useful

Now listen to the recording to check your answers.

2 Listen again to the five extracts from the end of negotiations. Complete the grid below.

Practice 4

Suggest what you could say in the following situations.

Situation 1
After a long negotiation, you have reached agreement and now plan a meal in a local restaurant with the other party in the negotiation.

Situation 2
Your efforts to reach agreement have been unsuccessful. It is late. End the negotiation but offer some hope that in the future you might manage some cooperation with the other side.

Situation 3
A colleague has asked you to cooperate on a project, but after long discussion you feel you cannot participate because of fundamental disagreement. It is important that you continue to work together in other areas.
Situation 4
You want to repeat an order with a supplier but they are trying to increase prices by 20%. You cannot agree to this. End your discussions.

Situation 5
A customer is asking you to supply goods in a month. This is physically impossible. End the discussion.

Now listen to a recording of model answers.

Role play

Work in pairs, A and B. A should turn to File card 18A, B should turn to 18B. Each File card contains three different negotiating situations. Negotiate each of them. Let each negotiation follow its course and see if they are successful or not. Use some of the language you have heard for ending negotiations.

TRANSFER

Think of examples of conflict in negotiations that you have been involved in.
- What kind of negotiation was it?
- Who was involved?
- What caused the conflict?
- How was the conflict resolved?
- Were you happy with this solution?
- Do you think the conflict should have been resolved in another way?

TRANSFER

Think of another negotiation you have been involved in. Was the negotiation a success or a failure? Why?
How would you assess the negotiation in terms of:
- your objectives, targets and limits
- your planning
- the strategy
- team roles and individuals
- the issues
- strengths and weaknesses.

Negotiations (3)

Dealing with conflict
I think we should look at the points we agree on ...
We should focus on the positive aspects ...
We should look at the benefits for both sides ...
It is in our joint interests to resolve the issue ...
What do you think is a fair way to resolve this problem?
We hope you can see our point of view ...
Let us explain our position ...
Could you tell us why you feel like that?
I think we should look at the whole package, not so much at individual areas of difficulty.
Perhaps we could adjourn for a little while.
I think we need to consider some fresh ideas ...

Ending negotiations
So, can we summarize the progress we’ve made?
Can we go through the points we’ve agreed on?
Perhaps if I can check the main points ...
So the next step is ...
What we need to do now is ...
It’s been a very useful and productive meeting.
We look forward to a successful partnership.

Breaking off negotiations
I think we’ve gone as far as we can.
I’m sorry, but I don’t think we’re going to agree to a deal.
It’s a pity we couldn’t reach agreement this time.
Unfortunately we appear unable to settle our differences.
It would be better if we looked for some independent arbitrator.

Rejecting
I’m afraid we can’t ...
Before agreeing to that we would need ...
Unfortunately ...
I don’t think it would be sensible for us to ...
I think if you consider our position, you’ll see that ...

You are a visitor to your partner's hometown. He / She has invited you to a restaurant. Either use a menu from a local restaurant, written in your own language, or use the menu below. Talk about it, choose what you would like to eat, talk about the restaurant. Ask questions about the town and what there is to see and do here.

If you like, develop small talk about business, work or the state of the country's economy and / or business prospects.

When you have finished, reverse roles. Talk about your birthplace or hometown.

Finally, when the check arrives, offer to pay. Final comments on the meal. Decide what to do next.

You work for D.F.M., a London-based pharmaceuticals company. You are expecting an overseas visitor with an appointment to see your colleague, Rowena Stanton. Ms Stanton has just used her carphone to tell you that there has been an accident on the motorway — she will be delayed for perhaps an hour.

Explain the problem. Say that another colleague, Karen Pochard, can show the visitor around your laboratories — if he / she would like.

Make small talk – Karen Pochard has not yet arrived either (but you do not have to tell your visitor this). She should be along in a few minutes.

Offer to help your visitor in various ways.

File Card 2A

You work for Caldos, a multinational business. You have arranged to visit a potential partner in a German company. You have received an outline programme for the day, finishing at 5 p.m.

When you arrive, introduce yourself and say you have an appointment.

Also:

- You would like to make a telephone call.
- Unfortunately — you only discovered this yesterday — you need to leave at 4 p.m. as you have a plane to catch (to Paris) at 5:30. You would like to have a taxi to take you to the airport.
- You have heard there are train strikes. Ask if this will affect reaching the airport.

File Card 6A

Someone calls you about a visit to your company. You would like to meet the caller but cannot make any arrangements today — offer to call back tomorrow. Find out who the caller is and how you can reach him / her.

File Card 14A

Team A: Coen Brothers. You are representatives of Coen Brothers, manufacturers of prefabricated industrial buildings. You are planning to launch a major sales drive in Italy, a new market for your company.

The market. The Italian market for prefabricated industrial buildings is very competitive, and since you are based in London and the Netherlands you have transport costs to add to your manufacturing costs. However, you know that on average your prices are 10% lower than Italian competitors, though at the top of your product range, your prices are a little higher than the average, but the quality is also better.

The product. Your buildings are highly functional, and can be adapted to a range of industrial needs. They are built according to strict Scandinavian design quality and use the best available materials.

You supply all materials.

You also take care of the actual construction, including connections for electricity, water systems, insulation and heating.

You can also supply the buildings at finished quality, in other words, fully decorated according to the customer’s wishes.

Different qualities are available: basic, standard and ultra, which includes a full range of services at residential quality.

Your position in the discussion is basically to support investment in public transport. Do this by referring to:

- environmental benefits
- improvements in quality of life
- public transport is cheaper
- cars are heavy consumers of raw materials
- people want improved transport.

In the discussion:

- accept some interruptions but make sure you get all your arguments across
- defend your arguments
- be polite but firm
- repeat if necessary.

You start.
You are the Personal Assistant to your boss, Ken Siam. A caller rings to speak to him. Take down any details you need and promise to call back next week. Your boss is on holiday but you do not want to say this.

You are an Order Processor for Office Universe Limited, a London-based stationery and office equipment company. A customer rings with a problem over an invoice.

Terms: 30 days from invoice date.

Thank you for your patronage.
Telephone or fax your orders to Julie 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Notes:
- You have checked with the original telephoned order and can find no mistake; the customer did order all the goods you have sent. You do sell cheaper copy paper and cheaper ring binders, but with different part reference numbers.
- You accept the customer should have received a 10% discount and free carriage and packing – offer to send a new invoice.
- Your company recently altered its terms to 30 days for all customers and all were notified in a separate letter.
- You cannot take back the order but if the customer is unhappy he/she can return the goods and no fee will be charged.
- Offer to send different quality (standard, not laser quality) copy paper and different ring binders (plain colored).
You are the same Quality Control Manager for Comcosol. You are in your office when the telephone rings.

Suggestion: Look in a local What's On guide or newspaper to see if there are any special attractions on now.

You are a sales representative for an advertising consultancy. You are responsible for selling perimeter advertising for sports arenas in Italy. You sell 25 metre electronic advertising at Italian Serie A (first division) football matches.

- Price: on live television:
  - corner position: $120 per flash (one minute)
  - halfway line or behind the goal $240 per flash (one minute)
- You can offer discounts of up to 20%, but only for deals of three matches or more.
- You can offer two free flashes at non-televised games instead of a discount.

Notes:
You have no space on the halfway line (middle of the playing area) in January and February.
A deal must be for a minimum of 10 flashes per match.
You represent an international company with business links in Tokyo. You urgently need to buy a brand-new luxury apartment in Tokyo's Shinjuku district.

You could spend up to ¥250m, but you would prefer to spend only about ¥150m because you would also like to buy a second, smaller apartment in Hachioji — but this is not essential.

Notes:
- Shinjuku is one of the most famous and prestigious districts in downtown Tokyo.
- You would like the apartment to be near Shinjuku Gyoen Park, or close to Shinjuku station.
- Hachioji is a suburb — you are not sure exactly where.
- You need the apartment to be ready in less than three weeks.
- You want the inside decorated to your specific requirements — you will pay extra for this.
- You would like an apartment with a swimming pool and tennis courts.
- You want a large apartment — about 200 sq.m.
- If you cannot have any of the above, you would like to pay less.

Team A: HBT Rexis Ltd — a subsidiary of HBT Inc.

Your company has recently developed an anti-inflammatory drug to treat arthritis. You plan to market the drug within two years. You want to include your sister company, HBT Short Ltd., in the project because they have more experience in testing and marketing this type of drug. They already produce Arpan, an anti-arthritis drug with a large market share.

You:
- would like to set up a Project Team, based at Rexis. You think the team should consist of three members from Rexis and two from Short.
- expect the final development of the drug, including the trials and salaries (calculated in employee-hours) of Project Team members, will cost $900,000.
- have to apply for a patent for the drug and for it to be licensed by the American Food and Drug Administration. You expect approval within two years.

Note
If you cannot reach agreement, you plan to develop the drug alone.
Team A: Coen Brothers

The negotiation. Clearly you would like to supply all three buildings to Fratelli Taviani, but be sure not to give away too much in terms of discount. Against this, it is very important that you enter the Italian market.

There are certain extras that you can provide at little extra cost: you can decorate the finished buildings and you can agree to an extended warranty of up to ten years. This means total building replacement in the event of structural faults developing. Ordinary maintenance and wear and tear is not included.

Situation 1
You work for a translation agency. You can translate legal contracts into any language:
- cost: $300 per 1,000 words
- a job of more than 5,000 words will take a week
- if it is more urgent than a week, the cost will be a lot higher.

Situation 2
You are in Hamburg. You urgently need to rent four vans from a local car and van rental company:
- you expect to pay about €100 per day per van
- you have to have the vans today or tomorrow.

Situation 3
You are the Conference Organiser for Lake View Hotel. You rent conference space:
- cost: normally $1,000 per day for facilities for five people
- 50% non-refundable deposit six months before the conference date (this is negotiable)
- bed and breakfast conference rate – another $1,000 per day for five people
- no deposit required for bed and breakfast.
You receive a visitor to the town where you now live, or to your birthplace. You agree to have a meal in a restaurant. Either use a menu from a local restaurant, printed in your own language (explain in English what the various dishes are), or use the menu below. Talk about what there is to eat, choose what to have, comment on the restaurant, talk about the town and the number of visitors, tourism, places of interest, etc.

If you like, develop small talk about business, work or the state of the country's economy and / or business prospects.

Act out parts of the meal. Comment on the food.

Finally, ask for the bill. You intend to pay - you are the host. Final comments on the meal. Decide what to do next.

You have just arrived at D.F.M., a New York-based pharmaceuticals company. You have an appointment to see Rowena Stanton in the Research Department.

You are very busy and have another appointment this afternoon and one in Boston tomorrow. It would actually be best for you to spend some time preparing for these appointments.

Note:
- Be prepared to engage in a few minutes’ small talk with the person greeting you.
- You would like to prepare for your meeting this afternoon.
- You would like a recommendation on what would be a nice gift for your partner (male or female) back home.
- You would like to send and receive a confidential fax.

You are expecting a visitor from Caldos, a multinational company with a plant in Brazil. You have arranged a meeting to talk about the products and services you offer. You have sent your visitor an outline plan for the day.

Welcome the visitor and spend a few minutes making him/her feel relaxed. There is a strike affecting air travel in your region of the country. Flights are likely to be delayed.

Finally suggest that you go to meet one of your colleagues, Bert Trautman.

You are visiting your partner in the town where he/she lives and/or works. He/she wants to arrange some social event or entertainment for you. Make an arrangement with him/her.

Someone calls to talk to your boss, Andrea Koss. Ask the caller to spell his/her name/company name so you can write it down. Andrea Koss is not available – she is in a meeting and cannot be disturbed. Offer to take a message or say she will call back – later today.

If you plan to ask Andrea to call back, get a phone number.

Choose one of the identities given below. Call your partner to ask if you can visit him/her and try to make an arrangement today. You want to talk about his/her company’s products.
You are the secretary to Robin Freeley, Production Controller at Hamwell Inc. Your boss is busy and cannot be disturbed. Deal with the caller and do not disturb your boss!

Your position is to defend the freedom of private car ownership. You think:
- quality of life depends on freedom of choice
- people want personal space – cars make this possible
- people want to leave and to arrive when they want
- public transport is massively expensive, through taxation
- the car industry employs many thousands of people.

In the discussion:
- oppose simplistic arguments for the expansion of public transport
- interrupt when you think your colleague says something simplistic or wrong
- present the arguments above
- be polite, but firm.

Your partner will start.

14B

Team B: Fratelli Taviani. You are representatives of Fratelli Taviani, an Italian agricultural feeds manufacturer. You have a meeting with Coen Brothers, a London-based Anglo-Dutch company.

Your requirements. You need to build a new office and storage buildings at your Asti plant in Piedmont, in Northern Italy. There are many suppliers of prefabricated industrial buildings.

You need two standard-quality storage buildings with electricity, water and air-conditioning systems. You also need an office building of the highest quality. You expect to have the buildings decorated at extra cost by a local decorator.

You want the buildings to be supplied and erected within 30 days, but you could allow 60 days.

The market. You would like to use a local supplier, Daniele Edili, who supplied some of your existing buildings. Unfortunately they are on average 10% more expensive than Coen Brothers. Coen products are also better quality. On the other hand, Coen is a new company and you need assurances on their quality and ability to meet deadlines.

Situation 1
You want a legal contract translated into English:
- it is 6,000 words long
- you expect to pay between $1,200 and $1,500
- you need it in two days – three days maximum.

Situation 2
You are a car and van rental company in Hamburg:
- van rental costs €120 per day
- 10% discount for orders over €1,000
- no vans are available today and only two tomorrow.

Situation 3
You want to rent conference space at the Lake View Hotel:
- find out the cost for ten people for your two-day sales conference in eight months’ time
- ask for a discount
- ask if you have to pay a deposit
- insist that it is refundable.
FILE CARD 15B

You represent an international fashion house with a major youth market, especially in Italy and Spain. You want to advertise at Italian Serie A (first division) football matches. You have a budget of $10,000. You would like the following:

- electronic advertising at matches on live television only
- a minimum of ten flashes in every game (a flash = one minute)
- you prefer halfway line positions (they are most often seen by the TV cameras)
- you don't want behind the goal unless you get a good discount
- you would like to advertise at between four and six matches in the early part of the year (January–March).

FILE CARD 16B

You represent an international property company. You are selling luxury apartments in Tokyo.

Notes:

- Apartments in Tokyo are small; land is very expensive.
- 70 sq.m is normal, 100 sq.m is large by Tokyo standards.
- It is virtually impossible to provide a swimming pool or tennis courts.
- You have two new apartments in Shinjuku:
  - 100 sq.m at ¥120m
  - 150 sq.m, near the Shinjuku Gyoen Park, ¥200m.
- Shinjuku is one of the most famous and prestigious districts in downtown Tokyo.
- Prices are negotiable – but no more than 20% less.
- Hachioji is a suburb, about 40 minutes by train from the centre.
- You have an excellent apartment in Chofu (nearer the centre) for sale at ¥120m.
- The apartments could be ready in 5 to 6 weeks.
- Special interior designs can be arranged – cost about ¥20m.

Daniele Edili prices are up 10% over last year – a common trend in the Italian prefabricated building sector. Consider buying outside Italy – quality guarantees must equal those available in Italy – i.e. 3 years’ free maintenance. Suggest looking for this in any contract agreed with Coen Brothers.

Team B: HBT Short Co. – a subsidiary of HBT Inc.

Your colleagues in a sister subsidiary, HBT Rexis Co., have asked you to participate in the development and marketing of a new drug to treat arthritis.

You:
- are experienced in this sector of the drug industry
- presently market Arpan, which has 25% of the domestic market and a growing export market
- would like to cooperate with Rexis, because you do not want to compete with them in the arthritis drug market
- need to be flexible in negotiating with them
- do not believe a single Project Team is required. You think there should be one team in charge of the tests, based at Rexis, and one team in charge of marketing, based at Short
- think that $500,000 is the absolute maximum that should be spent on developing the drug
- are sceptical about its market potential. You feel that it could simply take sales away from Arpan. The following memo was written following a meeting of your Product Development Executive:

HBT Short Co.: Internal Memo

CONFIDENTIAL

Re. Arpan/New Rexis Anti-inflammatory drug

This Rexis product could be a threat to ARPAN. Development should avoid high investment, especially by Short. Some commitment is acceptable, but ...

keep costs down!

Product Development Executive

- think further tests will take at least three years before the U.S. Food and Drug Administration give approval
- would prefer that Short take responsibility for the trials and in exchange you will provide information about potential markets once the tests have been completed.
Staff consultation on leisure facilities in the workplace

The company has money to spend on improving facilities for staff. Among the options are:
- a sports club with new gym and bar facilities
- a crèche and after-school center for employees' children
- a swimming pool and café area
- a bar / restaurant / library / Internet café for staff and families

Decide on priorities. Suggest a recommendation based on one of the above, or a combination of two.

High turnover of staff in Daycare Center

Total employees: 300
- 170 women
- 45 are mothers with young children.

Company daycare facilities for children are used:
- i. after school before end of working day (5 p.m.)
- ii. school holidays.

Mothers unhappy because:
- very high turnover of staff in Center
- no continuity
- poor organization of Center.

Loss of car parking spaces

Because of a large expansion of office and production space, most staff car parking will soon disappear. How should the company distribute the 100 spaces that are left?

Note: the company employs about 300 staff
- about 28 staff are disabled
- the company is located on bus and train routes
- about 200 staff currently use car parking space at work
Policy on contemporary artwork for reception area

The company has always supported contemporary art with regular purchasing and exhibition of paintings and sculpture. It now has quite a good collection of over 100 pieces. Only about a third of the collection is on display.

There are arguments about what to do with the collection and about the purchase and exhibition policy. Are there other more important priorities for the company?

Options:
- Sell the work and stop buying art
- Build a gallery to exhibit the work
- Donate the work to the local City Art Gallery & Museum
- Stay as now, showing some work in the reception area, changing the works occasionally, but buying no more.

Sam Adela (Chair)

You have called a meeting of the Executive of Adel Passam Inc. to discuss the crisis surrounding the company. Prepare a brief agenda and short opening remarks. Refer to the Checklists in Unit 10 to remind you of your responsibilities as chair and some of the language you may need.

You:
- are the most heavily implicated in the scandal
- are a friend of Cass
- are angry that the press allege that your late father, Mikel Adela, may have profited by up to $1m from Cass's deal
- think API should sue the local papers for libel.

Jay Worthy (Legal Advisor to API)

You:
- are worried that the accusations may be true but you cannot say this directly
- think API should wait and see what happens next
- feel that the scandal really involved Cass and politicians but …
- you cannot say this too loudly because Marta Lucas is married to the former leader of the Democratic People's Party.

Note: From a legal point of view, probably no individual has been libeled because no one has been named in the reports except Mikel Adela who is now dead and the dead cannot be libeled.

Marta Lucas (Director)

You:
- have never heard of the scandal until very recently but your husband is deeply embarrassed
- believe your position with the company is compromised if your husband is found to be corrupt
- think that if you resign, it will look like an admission of guilt
- may decide that on the other hand, your relationship with your husband is compromised!
- believe the company should fight to protect its – and your – reputation.
Anton Hassim (Director)

You:
- fear that the public will make direct connections based on Sam Adela's friendship with Cass and Marta Lucas's marriage to the leader of the Democratic People's Party
- think that even if Sam Adela did not benefit personally, if people think Mikel Adela was guilty, then the company is in deep trouble
- think the company should wait, admit nothing and deny nothing
- think that to sue the papers for libel is risky and would cost a fortune.

Pat Joyce (Director)

You:
- feel that the allegations must be completely false because you knew Mikel Adela for forty years as a completely honest man
- believe that API never had any formal dealings with politics and politicians
- think Marta Lucas's personal life is her own affair
- think the company should issue a statement denying the allegations, publish accounts from the period, etc.

Berni Callam (Accountant)

You:
- are new in Adel Passam Inc. and you are shocked by the scandal
- naturally hope that the accusations are false and that the affair only involves the Council and Cass
- feel that a thorough independent investigation of the accounts should clear the company's reputation
- want to avoid a legal battle
- fear that the public will always associate Cass with Adel Passam Inc. and with Mikel and Sam Adela
- think that in time the damage will fade
- think every company has its scandals.

Jan Lubitsch (Managing Director and Chair)

Introduce the background and the problem. Explain that the promotion has been oversubscribed (you forecasted 1,000 takers, and there are 5,000). You fear that the costs of meeting the extra 4,000 will be enormous. The problem is that Blue Balloon does not have the capacity and anyway is contracted only to provide 1,000 trips at $125.

During the discussion, you want to establish what action should be taken. Decide on specific actions that must be done after the meeting.
Andrew / Andrea Eastman (Marketing Director)
You feel ultimately responsible because you decided to run the promotion. You insured Sola against oversubscription but only up to 1,000 extra trips, not 4,000. You took advice from an advertising agency, Promo World. You feel they gave you wrong advice and Sola should seek compensation from them.

Fred / Freda Cavani (Director)
You think Sola were wrongly advised and should receive compensation from the advertising agency, Promo World, who advised Sola on the promotion. You want to know what the legal position is on getting compensation.

Eric/Erica Whitehead (Director)
You think Blue Balloon should arrange more balloon trips at a cheaper price than $125, or that other companies could be approached to help out. You are concerned about the bad publicity surrounding the promotion. You think Promo World should explain why they thought insurance for only 1,000 extra trips would be enough. However, you also think the situation cannot be so serious, as clearly many hundreds of people stayed in your hotels and may return for a second visit – so perhaps it has been a good promotion after all. You imagine that Promo World will say that, anyway.
For Judith, Ruth and Neil with love from Dad.
